Dressed to impress at formal night

Last Friday was a night to remember for seniors at Penola High School, as they donned their best outfits for the 2022 Penola High School Formal.

The theme this year was Starry Nights, and the students were definitely shining brightly that night.

The highlight of the school year, the event gave the students a chance to unwind and relax with their friends.

Penola wants out

By Elsie Adamo

A group of concerned ratepayers in Penola and Coonawarra have written to the Premier requesting the recent amalgamation plebiscite to include a review of the Wattle Range Council.

The letter, signed by a handful of ratepayers, was sent to South Australian Premier Peter Malinauskas last week, expressing their long-term dissatisfaction following the amalgamation of Penola District Council into the Wattle Range council in 1997.

The group requested the Premier to undertake a plebiscite within the Wattle Range region to determine the "success or non-success" of the prior merger.

"The meeting felt the amalgamation of the Penola Council that occurred 25 years ago has not proved to be successful. There has been much dissatisfaction in the district regarding local issues and the Penola and Coonawarra area feels that its voice is not being heard," the letter read.

"As a result we suggest it would also be an appropriate time to reconsider the amalgamation of Penola and Millicent Councils. It is worth noting at this time there were no nominations for Mayor in Robe nor Kingston. This is highlighting the need for a re-alignment of councils within the Limestone Coast.

"Such matters require your urgent attention as the Wattle Range Council is contemplating expending $9.2m for a new council facility when it has not sought ratepayer approval for the expenditure, only explaining its inadequate facilities, exhibiting the architect's proposal, and highlighting the staff approval for the project."

The District Councils of Beachport, Penola and Beachport were amalgamated in 1997.

Even 25 years later, some within the region stand by their belief their own towns would have been better served if amalgamation had never occurred.

One signee on the letter is Penola resident

Jodi Strother, who said since her return to Penola after living away for two decades she has been dismayed by the Wattle Range Council's treatment of the town.

"Since returning to Penola I can see the town going backwards," she said.

"Even in the twenty years I was away I can see the town absolutely has gone downhill, whereas it used to be such a beautiful little tourist town with thriving businesses, and a very proud population.

"The council just does not seem to be supporting it.

"It was seen as an opportunity to ask for one [a plebiscite] for Wattle Range as well."

Shears will click at a speedy rate

By Kathy Fennell

Plans for the speed shears event at the Penola show this year are well in hand.

The competition will be held late Saturday afternoon in the show pavilion and shearing entries are rolling in.

The last speed shears held at the show was some 12 years ago and was a great crowd attraction.

Once the show gates close on Saturday, the public will be admitted free for the speed shears.

Event organiser Belinda Sanders said her committee is looking forward to a great event.

“A committee was formed when a few of us were having a yarn and a drink after a day of working in the sheds.

We established early on that as well as showcasing the shearing industry, we also had the opportunity to give back to the local community.

As a committee we agreed that we would run as a not for profit organisation, and that the proceeds from the event would go the Penola-Coonawarra RSL,” Belinda said.

The event will be fully catered for with bar facilities also available.

It is also an opportunity for local organisations to raise some funds.

Stepping outside the classroom

This week 30 Millicent High School students stepped out of the classroom and into workplaces throughout Millicent and districts with another 30 due to follow in the next two weeks.

The year 10 students are taking part in work experience for up to five days as an integral part of their stage one Personal Learning Plan (PLP).

PLP teacher Judy Crawford expressed her gratitude to all local businesses and employers who continue to support the work experience program.

“There are 60 students involved and once more, the Millicent business community have responded positively to support them.

“For some, Work Experience plays an important role in shaping possibilities for future pathways and learning options.

“Whilst others experience their first taste of stepping into the world of work.

“Involving adolescents in Work Experience programs has enormous benefits.

“They develop greater confidence, self-management skills and realistic expectations about the workplace” Ms Crawford said.

Jonathan Bennier and Kiana Lynch are two students starting work experience this week.

On her first morning at McCourts Garden Centre Kiana was found being kept busy watering the seedlings and said

Jonathan chose to undertake his work experience at local mechanic's Trusted Automotive and when asked about his choice said

“I'm looking forward to learning more about the trade and possibly using it as my future career.”

Students have selected from a wide variety of industries for their work placements ranging from health, fitness and aged care to automotive carpentry and plumbing.

Ongoing feedback from students and employers enables students to build a better understanding about the links between schooling, training and future employment.

Society honours Queen

By Kathy Fennell

A special tree planting ceremony to mark the Platinum Jubilee for the late Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth 11 was held at MCorquindale on Sunday with more than 60 people attending.

The Penola Show Society received an Australian Government grant to purchase trees to acknowledge the occasion.

A small committee led by board member Rick Paltridge chose 10 mature special ash shade trees which have been planted in an avenue either side of the road into McCorquindale Park.

The trees grow approximately 14 metres in height and have a spread of eight metres.

Rick welcomed Member for Barker, Tony Pasin, local councillors Dean Burrow and Chris Brodie and show president Kinta Wilson.

Prior to the official part of the ceremony one minutes silence was observed in honour of Her Majesty.

In addressing the gathering Mr Pasin welcomed everyone on this happy and sad occasion.

"I remember in the party room when we were considering an advanced Her Majesty's Platinum Jubilee and how we would as a nation acknowledge that momentous occasion," he said.

From here a Platinum Jubilee tree planting program was born.

"I was very grateful to receive an application from the Penola Show Society, and I was even more happy to provide the $3500 contribution," he said.

Mr Pasin congratulated the society on their efforts and said he looked forward to seeing the trees in full growth.

Show president, Kinta Wilson thanked Rick and his committee for their efforts.

"I would like my children and other children who are here today to know that we are planting these trees for your future and when you come to the football and the show, you will be able to see the trees that we planted grow as you grow," she said.

The weather was extremely inclement, however there was a small fine break when five school students and Tony Pasin were able to plant the last tree.

A delicious afternoon tea was served after the ceremony.

Bella Minge wins champion handler at Adelaide Show

By Kathy Fennell

Penola's Bella Minge came home from the Royal Adelaide show recently with a championship ribbon for the Intermediate Handlers class for cattle.

Bella attends the Lucindale Area school and is currently in year 12.

"The 16 month old Angus steer, named Stewie, performed extremely well in the ring. I started preparing him for the show at the start of term two this year.

This involved breaking him in and teaching him to lead," she said.

Following on from winning the class, Bella had to compete against eight other entrants to take out the title.

The judges, Angus Llewelyn and Phoebe Eckermann commented that they were very impressed with the way Bella was always smiling and happy.

"She kept her composure, had good control of the halter and had very good use of the cane," Mr Lewlyn said.

Bella said she has always loved cattle and really enjoyed the experience at the Adelaide show.

"It was great to mingle with other students from the 40 other schools in South Australia.

As this was my first time competing at the show I was pretty chuffed to win," she said.

In 2023 she will start a Diploma in Agriculture at Longerenong College in Horsham.

The college also enters the Royal Melbourne show with cattle and Bella said she is really looking forward to that.

As her prizes she received a championship ribbon, trophy and cattle brush.

"I would like to continue on after my two years of study and become a stock agent.

Funnily enough her dad, Sean, is also a stock agent.

David Walshaw displays his Red Cross Distinguished Staff Award and citation letter signed by Australian Red Cross President Ross Pinney.

Walshaw awarded

By Caroline Hammat

Limestone Coast resident David Walshaw was presented with a Red Cross Distinguished Staff Award at the Limestone Coast Zone Conference held in Mount Gambier September 12.

Mr Walshaw recently retired from Mount Gambier Red Cross on June 30 as Regional manager of South East, Mid Murray and Riverland.

Unaware of who nominated him Mr Walshaw first heard about the nomination after receiving an email from Red Cross asking if he would be willing to accept the national award.

Mr Walshaw is the only South Australian recipient of the award and has received an official medal, pin and framed citation to acknowledge his contribution.

The award recognises the dedication, service and leadership of Red Cross staff over a significant period of time at a local, regional, divisional or national level.

Having the choice to receive the award at either the Red Cross AGM in Adelaide or the locally held zone conference Mr Walshaw chose the latter.

“The vice patron Libby Furner organised it, it was nice to do it in the South East where the people who nominated you may be in the room.

“It was unexpected because we don’t do these things for the awards.

“We do it because it’s the right thing to do, you do it because that’s your job.

“It’s nice that somebody has observed that and seen the impact we’ve had on community.”

Covering a large part of the state Mr Walshaw explained that each region has different needs.

“The South East is different to the Riverland so programs we put up there are different from down here.”

“The Mid Murray is different because it’s closer to Adelaide, the more remote you get from Adelaide the greater the social needs supports are.”

Mr Walshaw’s framed citation notes he has provided exceptional services beyond the call of duty, and that he embraces diversity and inclusion in the course of his responsibilities.

The citation lists several successful initiatives such as translating Covid-19 information for the migrant community and partnering with Kellogg’s to enable access to breakfast products for vulnerable families.

David Walshaw’s recently awarded Red Cross Distinguished Staff Award and matching pin.

Mr Walshaw has organised a supply of SIM cards and mobile phones for women fleeing domestic violence and he helped promote Share the Dignity program locally.

“There are lots of those sorts of programs and we deliver to Millicent.

“Kellogg’s provide us with a wide range of breakfast products and people just ring us.

“When the bus comes down on Tuesday and Thursday we put it on the bus and deliver to their homes.

“We do the same with feminine hygiene products and more recently it’s dog food.

“If people are struggling to feed themselves then the pets are suffering as well, for some people their pet is the only being there for them.”

Mr Walshaw was pleased to receive the award that acknowledged his service to the organisation.

“They don’t give many of these out as I understand it, being a national award it comes under close scrutiny.

“You have to be nominated, it goes before a committee and a decision is made on all the evidence that is provided.”

Des Noll was elected into the Mayoral position unopposed. Picture: SUPPLIED

Unopposed

Des Noll has been re-elected Mayor of Wattle Range unopposed after nominations closed last week.

Mr Noll’s second term, he said he is humbled by the chance to spend another four years in the role.

“This opportunity the community has given me to serve them as their mayor is not something Shari [Noll] and I take lightly,” Mr Noll said.

“The Office of the Mayor is a significant position within any community, and I certainly respect the position.

“It has always been my belief that whoever holds this position must ensure the integrity and the highest standards are always maintained.”

Mr Noll has said he is motivated to represent everyone in Wattle Range.

“I am listening to all and representing those who are not able to have a voice, no matter what their issue may be or the diversity they may come from,” he said.

“It must always be remembered that the mayor’s office is built on trust, integrity, transparency, and fairness to all. I stand firm with this as it flows through the Council organisation and into our communities. These values build community trust, growth, and diversity.

“As Mayor, I will continue to carry the mantra of not leaving anyone behind and take this opportunity to sincerely thank you for your continued confidence and support for both myself and Shari.”

Elections for other Council positions are ongoing.

Restoration rings in era

By Caroline Hammat

The historic Glencoe Woolshed holds many mysteries but maybe none more so than how an antique ships bell, engraved with the name Sylphide, ended up marking the beginning and the ending of shearing each day in the shed.

Researchers believe the brass bell came from an 1852 German made wooden barque that sank off the New South Wales coast in 1877 after colliding with a steel framed paddle steamer, but how it came to be a part of the historic woolshed remains a mystery.

The most likely explanation is that the bell was installed by the Lindsay family who leased Glencoe Station between 1868 and 1882 as Samuel James Lindsay was a ship's captain.

Last year the National Trust Glencoe Woolshed (NTGW) committee approached Penola based blacksmith Bruce Kennewell to refurbish the bell and to design and create a new bracket to fix it permanently.

Mr Kennewell was fascinated by the history of the bell and undertook his own research to ensure the tools, techniques and design were sympathetic to the era it was created.

"I was doing as much research as I could before I started mucking around with it.

"It was a fascinating story and even the name of the ship, in that era, was a common name.

"Sylphide came from an operetta that was popular at the time and is French for svelte-like, a ballerina type."

With around 30 years of blacksmithing experience Mr Kennewell has his own forge at home and spent hours considering how to hang the bell safely.

"The thing that interests me is the anvil I'm using to forge those pieces was made within the era of when the ship was built, or at least when it was at sea.

"I was looking at trying to find out how the bell would have been hung in the first place.

"I think it would have been housed with timber supports on both sides, in a little alcove on the focsle of the ship.

"They (NTGW) wanted to hang it on one of the wooden uprights in the middle of the shed so there was bit of engineering involved, because the bell itself was 25 kilo.

The refurbished bell with its custom made bracket now hangs permanently in the woolshed.

"If somebody was swinging on the lanyard ringing it at any point, it's got to be pretty solid.

Before refurbishing the brass bell had been painted red, and due to the practicalities of trying to remove it, the inside remains painted.

"It was hard to get inside to get it off and it also shows a bit of the history, who put the red paint on and when?"

Branch secretary Carol Grbich is delighted with the outcome and said

"Bruce has fixed up the bell and made it beautiful.

"He's done a lovely job and has framed it so now sits on one of the posts and looks stunning.

"It makes a hell of a noise."

To add to the mystery of the bell's journey to Glencoe is the legend of the cannon that was used before it.

"Before the bell arrived at the woolshed they used a cannon and we are not quite sure where it came from.

"It was fired at the beginning and the end of shearing and on the Queen's birthday.

"We think what happened was eventually a couple of guys started putting soil into the cannon and thought they would see if that went off.

"It actually blew the whole of the cannon apart and went in all directions in the area.

"People heard about it from miles away and a piece of it got stuck in the front of a house which has unfortunately now collapsed." Ms Grbich said.

Penola Seniors Lunch returns after a two year hiatus

After a two year absence due to Covid, the Penola Lions Club will again be hosting a lunch for all Penola seniors this year.

It will be held during seniors month on Sunday, October 23 at the Penola Bowling club starting at 12 noon.

"The club has held this annual event for many years and the last lunch in 2019 was a great success.

It is fantastic to be able to offer the lunch to seniors this year," President Jeff Hoare said.

The lunch will be advertised in The Penant over the coming weeks.

The lunch is a great opportunity for seniors to catch up with their friends over a good meal and the Penola Lions are happy to sponsor it once again to acknowledge the great contribution seniors make to the Penola community.

CWA donate chairs to Pinchunga

The Penola Terra Rossa CWA branch have donated lovely new outdoor chairs to Pinchunga Aged Care Residence.

Using funds that had been raised in 2021, the local CWA group decided to donate new chairs to the residents of Pinchunga.

Each Pinchunga resident is provided with an outdoor chair as the previous ones were looking rather weather beaten.

“The chairs arrived just in time for residents to sit outside and enjoy the sunshine and beautiful spring gardens,” CWA branch spokesperson Janet Brodie said.

CWA members enjoyed chatting to residents and staff as they placed the chairs outside each room.

The hospital then catered for morning tea.

This was greatly appreciated and enjoyed under the pergola in the central courtyard.

The Terra Rossa CWA had previously donated the native plants that are in full bloom in the courtyard and looking stunning.

Des Noll will remain as Mayor, with no other nominations received.

In the Kintore and Riddoch wards, there are three candidates vying for two positions, In Corcoran ward, there are six candidates vying for five positions and in Sorby Adams Ward, there are four candidates vying for two positions.

Below are profiles for each candidates, as written by them. [Some edited for clarity]

KINTORE WARD

Carrie Adamo

I believe we should have a greater diversity of voices on Wattle Range Council, so I am putting up my hand to represent Kintore Ward as a Councillor this election.

Our community is calling for better trust and confidence in their local government representatives.

My platform includes honesty, transparency and comprehensive consultation. I plan to be available and meet regularly with people and organisations across the region to understand issues and inform decisions I would make on Council.

Wattle Range is a fantastic place to live and as our region continues to grow, we must plan for future infrastructure needs and consider what kind of community we are striving to become. I believe everyone deserves a say in this progress.

After retiring I have returned full-time to Beachport where my husband Ralph and I have lived intermittently for the last 22 years.

I have developed a strong social conscience throughout my career in education, family and domestic violence, and homelessness.

Sharon Cox

I have been a Councillor for the Corcoran

Ward on the Wattle Range Council for 16 years.

My Husband and I have built a home in Beachport, which is why I would love to represent the communities of Kintore.

I still have more to offer and believe I have the experience to be able to serve as your representative. I hope to be able to continue being a voice for all members of our community, not just those in my ward. I am an approachable person having played an active part in our community over many years being involved with, the Millicent North Kindy and Primary School; Millicent Show Society; Millicent Community Builders; Tantanoola Football Netball Club and fundraising for The Leukaemia Foundation, I have probably sold you a raffle ticket!

I am married to Darryl, and we have two adult children.

I work two days a week in Mt Gambier with our son at his engineering company, allowing me to now spend more time in our community. I hope to have the opportunity to represent you on the Wattle Range Council.

Richard Cassidy

I have lived in the Kintore ward for 17 years along with my wife Robin on a small farm and I am proud to call Beachport Home. Our two boys have grown up here attending Beachport Primary school then Kangaroo Inn area school. I work in this community as a commercial fisherman and a vineyard worker, with my extra interests as a director on the board of the Limestone Coast Fishermen's Cooperative and co-ownership of Coastal Treasures, my wife's retail business in Beachport. Prior to moving living here, I had 15 years of experience in retail sales, marketing, and business administration in Melbourne. I am looking forward to the opportunity to become an effective and informed Councillor, being part of a team, working towards positive outcomes in our community. It would be an honour to represent our area on Wattle Range Council.

RIDDOCH WARD

Emma Castine

I am a returning resident of the region having been in the Adelaide Hills for the past decade.

I have a long history in the farming and wine industries both here and in the Hills.

I am currently working in the renewable energy sector. I would love to address food systems and regional processing for jobs and infrastructure for the region.

I feel so much gratitude in my fortune to come back to Penola and would love to hear what issues are on your minds for improving the region and our lives within it. Please contact me via email emmacastine@gmail.com if you would like to know more or discuss your issues.

Dean Burrow

It has been my privilege to live in the Riddoch Ward for over 41 years.

I have served as your elected Ward Councillor for the past 12 years, and have at all times, endeavoured to advocate for the needs of our vibrant community.

I am once again seeking your support in the upcoming Council elections to enable me to continue serving the district, by keeping rates as low as practically possible, while still maintaining the infrastructure necessary for our social well being, in our local towns, industries, farming communities, viticulture and forestry.

The Riddoch Ward is a progressive area but also has many places of unique historical heritage, with magnificent environmental assets that need to be enjoyed, protected and maintained for future generations. I would appreciate you giving me your first preference vote, by voting 1 Dean Burrow, indicating your support for my future endeavours.

Christopher Brodie

I have lived in Wattle Range for 22 years having worked at Katnook Estate until June 2021.

In November 2021 I stood for Wattle Range Council to fill a vacancy with no election as there were no other nominees.

Over the past 10 months I have learnt some of how a council operates and a councillors role in helping.

My aims are, to help council operate efficiently, represent Riddoch Ward's interests, and to promote more community involvement and activity through existing organisations such as community associations, sporting clubs, schools etc.

CORCORAN WARD

Dennis Muhovics

My name is Dennis Muhovics and I am married to Pat and we have two children and six grandchildren. I have lived in Millicent for 52 years and we have partnered a successful business for 40 years.

My main interests are local football, cars and gardening.

I have served on Boneham Homes board for 9 years, been involved in the MSEFL for 26 years, and eight years as president.

I am seeking a third term as councillor for Corcoran Ward and believe I can still offer an insight to the needs of our area and community. I support the retention of the saleyards for the wellbeing of our rural sector, and I ask you to consider voting for me to continue to ensure your voice is heard.

David Walshaw

Much of my working life and leisure time has been devoted to serving the community.

Having now retired from the paid workforce in June, I wish to continue my service to the Wattle Range Council area by offering myself as a candidate for Corcoran Ward.

Millicent has become my adopted home town and I believe that I have the work and life experiences together with the business and financial acumen to make a significant contribution.

There are a number of significant Wattle Range Council infrastructure projects in the pipeline such as the Millicent saleyards upgrade and the new Millicent council office.

With my background and skills, it is my belief that I can assist with the necessary oversight of projects of this magnitude. I plan to remain fully involved in the life of Millicent and district.

As the former Chairperson Millicent Business Community Association (six years), I understand that our primary producers, business community and the service industry (including medical facilities and aged care) need a framework to sustainably prosper.

I believe that as a Council member, the views of the community must be heard and represented. As the recently retired Manager South Eastern Water Conservation & Drainage Board (7 years at Millicent), together with my roles with the SA Water Corporation, NT Power and Water Corporation and Department of Premier and Cabinet, I intend to uplift good governance, community engagement, strong staff customer service ethic with sound process thinking into Council's decision making.

formed and well prepared for meetings. It is even more important to keep in touch with community and I do this as personally and often as possible, I always take phone calls and respond promptly to community members. If I don't know an answer I find out. I am a member of Lake McIntyre, Noorla YoLong and Social Issues committees and an active member of Lions. Every matter that comes before the Council I research thoroughly and then comment respectfully but fearlessly in meetings. I try very hard to represent all the community: business, residents and especially those who battle. Things can get tough in business and at home and in recent times more of us in our ward are struggling. I promise a strong voice for you all. Giving people a 'fair go' is important to me and that means improved services within what people can afford.

Old crafts make a return

By Caroline Hammat

Vintage and craft workshops being hosted by Wattle Range Council as a forerunner to the Geltwood festival are proving popular.

Last weekend 16 people had the opportunity to learn to create their own hand made stained glass peace dove or butterfly.

Two separate workshops were held over the weekend in Millicent's RSL Hall by Glencoe leadlight artist Brian Sims.

Participants chose their design, selected and cut the glass learning to grind, copper foil and solder their final pieces.

Most participants took home two finished pieces at the end of each workshop.

Amanda Hinton signed up for the free workshop to add to her craft skills.

Artist captures art lovers

By Caroline Hammat

An unusual portrait exhibition by Harrow artist Ron Penrose opened last Sunday at Karatta Wines and Art Gallery with over 40 people attending the family friendly event.

Less than four months ago Mr Penrose met with 15 people at the gallery taking photos and chatting to the potential artist's subjects to get to know them a little better.

Heading back to his Victorian studio Mr Penrose undertook an intense period of painting to ensure the portraits, painted in oils, were completed for Sunday's launch.

Mr Penrose briefly touched on his journey to portrait painting during the launch by saying he painted his first portrait in 1976 and at the same time painted a fire truck using a palette knife.

It wasn't until 2010 that he painted another portrait and a year later began using palette knives to paint them.

The restoration of an old house helped his direction as learning to plaster the walls led the artist to pick up a small builders trowel to use on one of his first large portrait paintings.

"When I put the paint on it just felt natural, it felt like I had come home to something I should do.

"I was inspired by Ben Quilty who had just won the Archibald (Prize) with his Margaret Olley portrait.

"He is a total inspiration as are a lot of other artists as well.

"Up until Covid things were going really well, until no more portraits.

"This has been a great opportunity to have sitters again, so many different faces" Mr Penrose said.

Mel Beggs and friend Feresh Pizarro in front of the portrait of Mel.

Most of the portrait subjects attending the opening were from across the Limestone Coast.

With Greenways resident Mel Beggs saying it had always been a dream of hers to have her portrait painted.

"I love art, and we have a few artists in our family and my husbands side of the family to.

"I thought it would be something fun to do and I kept it a secret from the family.

"I didn't tell my husband or kids until I dragged them down here today because I wanted to surprise them, even my mum I only told this morning" Ms Beggs said.

Explaining how she became involved in the project Andrea Braun from Mount Gambier said

"About three years ago I went to the nurses ball in Harrow and Ron was donating a landscape (painting) that evening as an auction item.

"I got to meet him there and we did a tour of his gallery the next day.

"Three years later I saw an article in The Border Watch for an invitation to be painted by Ron Penrose.

"I thought that's the fellow that did the awesome landscape, yep I'm in."

Portrait artist Ron Penrose stands with the portrait he painted of Millicent resident Helen Joyce who was unable to attend the launch.

Photographers put the focus on Wattle Range beauty

By Caroline Hammat

Around 70 people attended the opening of the Wattle Range Council's photographic competition on Sunday afternoon.

This year's competition saw all photographs entered digital only with organisers of the event printing out a selection from each category for display in the gallery.

A total of 328 entries were received from 53 different photographers, of which 29 were new entrants to the competition, with many of those being new residents to the region.

70 photographs have been printed, framed and hung with the remainder of the entries displayed digitally on three screens throughout the Millicent Library and Art Gallery.

Wattle Range Council's Manager Libraries and Cultural Services Janice Nitschke spoke about the history of the competition during the launch.

"This is the 15th year we've had the calendar.

Gallery director Janice Nitschke and volunteer Peter Dunn stand in front of Alex Window's winning photograph from Southend titled Texture and Bianca Briggs' runner-up entry Storm Boy from the People and Portrait category.

"A lot of our photographs are being used for promotional purposes for Wattle Range and also on our welcome signs.

"Liam Mills' photograph is on the welcome sign into Beachport.

"On the sign out by Kimberly-Clark that is about 12-13 years old, you've got four photographs and it reflects the change in photography.

"With Nicholas Bonney's windfarm photograph used on that sign taken on film.

"In that 15 year we've had that transition from film to digital and photoshopping, it really has evolved.

"We've got three new entrance signages for Tantanoola and they are all Wattle Range photographic exhibition images.

"There's been so many great photographs entered over the years that we can use."

The photographs will also be uploaded on to the Wattle Range Council website for viewing and remain on display in the gallery for the next month.

Penrose portraits in oils

A unique opportunity to have their portraits painted led to 15 people volunteering for an art project undertaken by Harrow artist Ron Penrose.

Residents of Millicent, Mount Gambier, Port MacDonnell, Millel and Robe put their hands up to be involved when the call went out for subjects in May this year.

The artist took less than four months to complete the textured portraits which have been painted in oils with palette knives.

The exhibition opened last Sunday at Robe's Karatta Wines and Art Gallery with over 40 people attending the family friendly event.

i20 N is for the enjoyment

By DEREK OGDEN, Marquee Motoring

In motoring terms, the letter 'N' mostly stands for 'neutral', or 'going nowhere'.

In the case of the Hyundai i20 N, nothing could be farther from the truth.

The maker has been spruiking the compact as bringing the DNA of its World Rally champion to the street as a daily driver.

Powered by a 1.6-litre turbocharged direct injection petrol engine, mated with six-speed manual transmission, maximum power of 150 kW is enough to fire the hot hatch from zero to 100km/h in 6.7 seconds.

There's much to admire in comfort and convenience for this class of car.

Pitted against the Ford Fiesta ST, Volkswagen Polo GTI and Suzuki Swift Sport, it serves up an encyclopedic list of performance goodies.

The price of $34,990, plus on-road costs, which recently went up by $2000, is nothing to be sniffed at.

It can be had in five different colours: Polar White and Performance Blue, at no cost; or Metallic Sleek Silver, Mica Phantom Black and Mica Dragon Red, all $495.

A black roof adds $1000.

The rally inspired look is designed to match high performance by minimising drag and boosting power.

Up front, air duct and splitter look the part, while out back a rather ragged design is topped off by a pared back rally-inspired roof mounted twin-layer spoiler which looks more of an afterthought.

Hopefully, it makes up in aerodynamic efficiency.

A black radiator grille, based on a chequered flag, is dominated by the Hyundai badge and the letter N.

LED headlamps on both sides incorporate tick-shaped daytime running lights.

Fog lamps flank a second grille strip low down.

Whiz-bang wheel design, featuring red brake callipers peeking out from behind five Y-spoke 18-inchers, put the finishing touches to the hot hatch.

Inside it's Ns all round, with letter-specific touches such as N sport leather-trim seats with integrated headrests, leather wrapped N steering wheel and gear knob, plus sporty N alloy pedals.

The iconic red steering wheel-mounted Rev Button chips in with a tempting finishing touch.

Wheels pushed out to all four corners of the car offer up a spacious cabin, capable of carrying five grown-ups in relative comfort.

Front bucket seats offer ample support in recommended enthusiastic driving, while shoulder and leg room in the back can take all but the bulkiest footy front row at a push.

There's a multi-level boot with a movable floor, incorporating a fitted cargo net, in the upper position.

Drop the 60/40 rear backrests and there's a flat load area.

Taking the floor out unveils a deep cubby in spite of there being a space-saver spare underneath.

The i20 N encompasses a plethora of computer-age automotive menus presented in twin 10.25-inch dashboard digital displays, offering instrument and entertainment info.

Included are worldwide track maps with lap times; personalised throttle response settings, exhaust note and stability control all accessed at the touch of two steering wheel-mounted switches.

Also on hand is a red button which calls up rev matching tech for optimised downshifts.

The instrument cluster has a range of display functions.

On a more relaxing note, the car is fitted

Packed with Features: Based on the high-performance Hyundai rally car, the i20 N is not short on comfort and convenience.

with a Bose eight-speaker premium sound system.

A 1.6-litre turbo-petrol four-cylinder pumps out 150 kW and 275 Nm, matched with a six-speed manual gearbox and a mechanical limited-slip differential that drive the front wheels.

Hyundai's Smart Sense Advanced Drivers' Assistance System tops up an already comprehensive safety package with such things as Forward Collision Assist City/inter-urban/pedestrian, Intelligent Speed Limit Assist, which warns when the speed limit has been exceeded; Lane Following Assist, which keeps the car centred between lane markings; and Blind Spot Collision Warning, an alert when a vehicle approaches the driver's blind spot.

Passive safety is in the hands of six airbags.

Fuel (regular unleaded) consumption of 6.9 litres per 100 kilometres is claimed by the maker on the combined urban/highway cycle.

On test the lively hatch recorded 10 litres per 100 kilometres and 4.7 litres per 100 kilometres respectively.

An N Power Sense Axle up front and Dual Coupled Torsion Beam Axle at the rear provide stiff ride and handling, which did not miss a bump on the ubiquitous uneven Aussie road surfaces.

Trackwork is more to the hot hatch's liking.

Steering is precise and direct thanks to reduced steering gear ratio over the standard model, while the limited-slip diff, plus 215/40R18 Pirelli P-Zero tyres, developed specifically for the i20 N, has the car efficiently carving through corners.

High performance brakes with bigger front discs resist fading, produce consistent pedal feel and maximise heat endurance.

Hyundai has put the brake on sending the i20 N Down Under, with the order book full and wait times approaching two years, so the above chance for fun and games would appear academic.

Loaded: The new Hyundai i20 model proves their is more than meets the eye in terms of features and the newer, modern style.

YOUR WEEKLY TV GUIDE

PICK OF THE WEEK

GUILLAUME'S PARIS

SBS and SBS Food, Thursday, 7.30pm

On a mission to prove that there's more to Paris than the Eiffel Tower and Arc de Triomphe – although he confesses they are also very important – French-Australian chef Guillaume Brahimi (pictured) returns to the city where he began his career, on a foodie odyssey. Each of the 10 episodes is devoted to two of Paris' arrondissements – the boroughs of the city – which each have distinct flavours, histories and characters. Tonight, in the 1st and 2nd, known as “The Heart”, Brahimi discovers one of city's first restaurants and tries authentic 19th-century cuisine, before putting his own take on the classics, using stunning local produce, in his own kitchen.

BAPTISTE

ABC TV, Friday, 8.30pm

This gripping six-part mystery comes to a nail-biting climax tonight as grey-haired Gallic detective Julien Baptiste (Tchéky Karyo) strives to wrap up his swansong case. In the penultimate episode, Baptiste realised that Andras Juszt (Miklós Bérés) was the far-right terrorist mastermind known as Gomorrah and had been hiding in plain sight all along. But is it too late for Baptiste to put a stop to the extremist's evil plan? With British ambassador-turned-sleuthing partner Emma Chambers (Killing Eve's Fiona Shaw, pictured) by his side, the Frenchman will do whatever it takes to make sure justice is done.

9-1-1: LONE STAR

Seven, Monday, 9pm

Strap yourselves in for the season three finale of this disaster drama – it's a roller-coaster ride of feelings. Already guaranteed to return for a fourth season following the emotional and physical challenges of Texan emergency department 126, fans can settle in knowing the spectacle will continue at break-neck speed next year. In “A Bright and Cloudless Morning”, there's a cathartic, dewy-eyed moment between T.K. (Ronen Rubinstein) and Carlos (Rafael L. Silva). After a few too many near-death experiences, fans can rejoice that T.K. lived to see this. Owen (Rob Lowe) faces his demons from 9/11 and, in the high-stakes catastrophe component, a building explosion hits close to home.

HARD QUIZ

ABC TV, Wednesday, 8pm

A spin-off of the “Hard Chat” segment on The Weekly with Charlie Pickering, Tom Gleeson's much-loved quiz show returns tonight for a triumphant 10th season. Armed with a gleefully mocking manner, the ruthless stand-up comedian probably never set out to make it this far, but a Gold Logie was surely never in his sights either. Needless to say, Hard Quiz remains one of the most-watched shows on free-to-air TV. Tonight's assortment of expert topics includes '90s sitcom Father Ted, the Final Fantasy video game series, Arnott's biscuits and former US first lady Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis.

Contest down to the wire

Mid South East Netball Association 17 and Under grand final: Mount Burr 26 d Robe 23
The top-level junior Mid South East netballers put on an entertaining display when the 17 and Under grand final took place.

Mount Burr and Robe went goal-for-goal throughout the contest, with neither able to make a decisive break.

Both teams started strong in what was an extremely tight and unpredictable game.

Robe brought intensity and aggression to the game, still able to keep control of the ball.

Mount Burr kept a consistently strong game, able to make back all turnovers.

Maddie Gamble and Olivia Dean made it hard for Robe shooters Ella Mackey and Sienna Brooks, with an incredible read on the ball which created turnovers and intercepts.

Robe's shots remained strong into the atrocious conditions, with the wind clearly affecting shots.

Oliviah Baker, Mae Johnston, Jemma Bowering and Jarrah Altschwager playing tight defence to pick off smart intercepts.

Maisie Hayes, Elizabeth Yeo and Hayley Wyllie played with aggression and made it hard for Mount Burr to get the ball down the court.

Mount Burr shooters Faith McKenzie and Jasmine Holland worked well together in the circle and scored risky and important goals, but not without a fight from Madeline Wirth and Lexy Hayes.

In an intense and exciting game, Mount Burr held its nerves and came away with a well-deserved victory.

Best on court went to Gamble.

After hard-fought start, Kalangadoo proves too strong

Mid South East Netball Association B Reserve grand final: Kalangadoo 42 d Mount Burr 27

Kalangadoo proved too strong for Mount Burr in the Mid South East B Reserve netball grand final on Saturday.

The game started as a tight tussle, with both teams working hard for possession in the goal circle.

Kalangadoo goal attack Jodi Greenwood was the focal point in the circle, with Narelle Ryan feeding with accuracy.

Throughout the game, Greenwood and Ryan positioned themselves under the ring to rebound any missed shots and score.

Mount Burr's Faith McKenzie took some strong pressure passes to be the focal point for the Mozzies, scoring with accuracy.

Kalangadoo made the most of turnovers with less passing errors, while at the defensive end Emma Mules and Gemma Box made it difficult for Mount Burr to get an easy pass into the circle.

Mount Burr's Dawn Smith demonstrated strength at both wing defence and wing attack, creating turnovers but the Mozzies found it hard to convert.

The wet, windy conditions made it difficult to pass the ball accurately and when the rain came, it became a simple game of possession.

Despite Georgia Lambert and Bec Fox working tirelessly to stem the flow into the Kalangadoo goal circle, the Magpies' patience and ability to use their feeding players meant they were able to come away with a 15-goal win.

Best on court went to Greenwood.

Kalangadoo claimed the Mid South East netball B Reserve premiership.

Magpies swoop to victory

Mid South East Netball Association 15 and Under grand final: Kalangadoo 61 d Robe18
The Mid South East netball 15 and Under grand final between Kalangadoo and Robe was a game of the elements, with thunder, lightning, hail and a glimmer of sunshine.

Robe had a good start with a vocal and supportive crowd cheering loudly with every goal.

Kalangadoo applied intense pressure all over the court and converted their goals through Tegan Lythgo and Gabby Varcoe.

Emily Dew and Chloe Peacock were the focal points for their teams and made each other work hard.

At the quarter break Kalangadoo led by 10 and never looked back, increasing the margin at every break.

Robe worked hard but Kalangadoo was simply too strong and tall, finishing undefeated for the season and claiming a comfortable grand final victory.

Best on court went to Peacock.

When the going gets tough: Demons up for the challenge

Mid South East Netball Association 13 and Under grand final: Port MacDonnell 36 d Kalangadoo 27

The Mid South East netball 13 and Under grand final saw Port MacDonnell claim a hard-fought victory over Kalangadoo.

The Demons took an early lead in the first quarter which forced Kalangadoo to play catch-up netball.

Goal Attack Bailee Lewis was a focal point in the goal circle for Port MacDonnell, with her strength and movement making it tough for the Kalangadoo players in the defensive circle.

Lucy Egan moved to goal attack in the second quarter and made an impact on the scoreboard with accurate shooting.

She continued to be the focal point in the Kalangadoo circle, with wing attack Ava Prosperi-Porta driving in attack and having patience when feeding her goalies.

Port MacDonnell defenders Chelsea Fulham at goal keeper and Layla McPherson at goal defence applied pressure and created turnovers the Demons were able to convert.

In the third quarter, Kalangadoo lifted, which forced the Demons to work hard for possessions and have patience to move the ball into attack and feed the goalies.

Kalangadoo goal keeper Matilda Badenoch worked hard to limit the Port MacDonnell goal shooter possession.

Kalangadoo battled to combat the height and physical strength all over the court, with Demons claiming the premiership by nine goals.

Best on court honours went to Lewis.

Action packed final clash

Mid South East Netball Association A Reserve grand final: Kalangadoo 35 d Robe 29

It was a tight contest befitting of a Mid South East netball grand final when Kalangadoo faced Robe in the A Reserve game.

The wet and windy weather made the going tough for both sides, with changing conditions throughout the contest.

Kalangadoo goal shooter Maddy Bonanno defied the wind and shot with accuracy, combining well with goal attack Estella Serle.

Robe's Kimberley Austin and Hannah Perkins fought hard to create turnovers, putting pressure over the ball and forcing errors for the Kalangadoo shooters, while Kim Ross and Jamie Ryan fought hard through the mid-court for their respective teams.

Kalangadoo defenders Shannen Pulkkinen and Shanae Neale combined well to put the pressure on Robe's Demi Carter and Ella Mackey, creating confusion in the goal circle and sending the ball back into the Magpies' attack line.

In a close contest Kalangadoo held on for a hard-fought six-goal premiership victory.

Murphies are standing tall

Mid South East Netball Association B Grade grand final: Glencoe 35 d Kalangadoo 20

The Mid South East netball B Grade grand final saw Glencoe claim a comfortable victory over a gallant Kalangadoo.

The Murphies came out firing in the first quarter, but the Magpies pegged their way back to level the score at eight goals each.

Many goals were missed by both teams in the second quarter, with the squally weather playing a major role.

However, the Murphies enjoyed the weight of possession and created more scoring opportunities, which allowed them to extend their lead of four goals.

Kalangadoo defenders Emily Mulraney and Kylie Schulz turned over numerous balls in the third quarter but were unable to capitalise.

Glencoe controlled the third quarter led by Chloe Watson and worked well as a team to outscore by Kalangadoo 12-6.

The weather conditions increased in intensity in the last quarter and made it challenging for both teams but in the end it was a comfortable premiership victory to Glencoe.

Best on court went to Watson.

Glencoe breaks drought

Mid South East Netball Association A Grade grand final: Glencoe 40 Kalangadoo 27

The showcase of the Mid South East Netball Association season saw a strong Glencoe outfit claim a win over perennial contenders Kalangadoo in blustery, wet conditions.

It was the Magpies 10th consecutive grand final but the Murphies paid little attention, as they hit the court running.

With nerves evident, both teams turned the ball over numerous times before Abbey Duncan eventually scored the first goal of the match for Kalangadoo.

As the quarter continued at break-neck speed, Kalangadoo looked strong and led four goals before Glencoe's Jenna Paproth scored their first goal six minutes into the match.

Donna Jaeschke and Jayde Peacock worked overtime for their respective sides through the middle, not giving each other an inch.

The Murphies finally settled into their style of game and late in the quarter closed the margin back to one goal with some solid defence by Sarah Edwards and Chantelle Cocks, but the Magpies took a two-goal advantage to the first break.

With the pressure of the moment increasing, both teams made mistakes in the second term, with Glencoe finally scoring from a Kalangadoo centre pass three minutes into the quarter, then secured their centre pass to have the game back square.

Kalangadoo defenders Lauren Kain and Reanna Wetherall worked well together at their end to get the Magpies back in front, while at the other end Cocks and Sarah Edwards pounced on any opportunities that presented.

The Magpies made more of their chances and seemed to settle better to give them a two-goal lead at the main break.

Glencoe opened the third quarter with a goal from Paproth, then the rain came down and Kalangadoo finally scored through Kori Collins.

Glencoe took the lead for the first time in the match six minutes into the quarter, before a squall came through and made shooting difficult for both sides.

Glencoe seemed to handle the conditions better and opened a three-goal lead, before Kain called time and Georgia Gentile came on at goal defence.

It did nothing to lessen Glencoe's endeavour for the ball and Malinda Markiewicz started to gain more possessions to give the Murphies more options in the goal circle.

As a result Glencoe was able to extend its lead to four goals at the final break.

Kalangadoo made changes for the last quarter, shuffling the defensive line to replace Kain.

Glencoe hit the court running and what transpired was probably unexpected.

The Murphies scored the first four goals of the final term to claim the biggest lead of the game at eight goals.

Kalangadoo continued to work hard to try and lessen the margin but Glencoe's defensive pressure throughout the court was too much.

In the end Glencoe claimed its first A Grade premiership since 1987, with a 13-goal victory.

Best on court was awarded to Paproth after a tireless game.

Emotions flowed over after the final whistle and the vocal Murphies supported streamed onto the court to congratulate their side.

It was a fitting end to a quality day of netball, albeit marred by atrocious weather conditions.

Eagles sneak over the line

Reserves: Hatherleigh 3.5 (23) d Kalangadoo 3.3 (21)

An undefeated season was kept intact by Hatherleigh Reserves after they claimed the Mid South East football premiership on Saturday.

However, it was only just as Kalangadoo staged a concerted comeback in the final term to almost steal the honours.

Throughout the minor rounds the Eagles held the upper hand by a fair margin, with a big 51-point win in Round 9, followed by a 36-point victory in Round 18.

the two sides then clashed in the second semi-final, with Hatherleigh again showing its prowess with a 71-point win.

It appeared the Magpies were up against it in the season decider, but that did not prevent a huge effort in extremely tough conditions, which probably levelled the playing field somewhat.

Wild weather ripped through the Kalangadoo venue, with rain, wind and thunder throughout the day.

It was tough to score but the Eagles were away to the better start, with one major score and a behind in the opening term, while holding the Magpies scoreless.

Kalangadoo found some more of the ball in the second quarter and banged on two straight goals, but the Eagles responded with two of their own and led by eight points at the main break.

The third term was an arm wrestle, with the Eagles adding one behind and the Magpies two, which set up an enthralling final stanza.

Those who had huddled together on the sidelines were not disappointed, as the two side traded blows and the scores were tied up late in the term.

However, it was the Eagles who broke the deadlock and found a couple of late behinds to claim the win by just two points.

In wild weather young Eagles taste success

17 and Under: Hatherleigh 4.5 (29) d Robe 1.8 (14)

It was a low-scoring affair in the Mid South East football 17 and Under grand final on Saturday, much to do with the wild weather which descended on the Kalangadoo venue.

Hatherleigh boasted three teams on grand final day and the young Eagles did not disappoint.

They claimed the first of two premierships for the club, with a gutsy win over Robe.

It was tough going on the muddy surface and the opening term showed just that, with the Eagles kicking a score of 2.3-15 to the Roosters' 1.2-8.

that trend continued throughout the game, with neither side able to make a decisive break.

Robe played catch up football from there and never quite had the opportunity to overtake the Eagles.

In the second quarter Hatherleigh added one major score to stretch its lead, while the Roosters could manage just the one behind.

It was a similar result in the third term as the Eagles stretched the margin to 19 points and given the conditions, made it tough for the Roosters to come back.

A big effort in the final term saw Robe hold Hatherleigh scoreless, but the Roosters could only add four behinds and the Eagles celebrated.

In a solid effort in front of goals considering the conditions, Harvey Jones kicked three major scores for the victors.

Joel Smith, Ethan Leopold, Zak Bowering, Danny Golding, Jett Faulkner and Jordan Atkinson were named best for Hatherleigh.

Jimmy Murch, Oliver Haggett, Mason McKenny, Flynn Peel and Cooper Thomas were best for Robe.

Hawks' first

14 and Under: 3.4 (22) d Glencoe 2.1 (13)

Kongorong claimed the first premiership flag of the 2022 Mid South Eastern Football League season, with a tough win over Glencoe in the 14 and Under grand final.

Saturday's contest came in harsh conditions, with the young footballers having the first taste of the wild weather.

The Hawks defied the conditions, with three straight goals in the opening term to set the scene and make it tough for the Murphies to chase down as the playing surface worsened.

Such were the conditions, neither side bothered the scorers in the second term, but Glencoe managed to close the margin in the third, with just six points separating the two sides at the final break.

Regardless, it was always going to be a tall order for the Murphies, who were unable to score in the final quarter, while Kongorong managed just three behinds to run out victors.

Luke Allen kicked two of the Hawks three goals.

Declan Richardson, Jobe Janeway, Allen and Jacob Gordon were best for the victors, while Hamish Gordon, Tighe Hurley, Kallan Price, Lachlan Brierley, Bailey Dale and Tyrone Siebert were best for Glencoe.

Eagles down

A Reserves:

Keith 39 d Penola 32

The A Reserves Eagles suffered a seven-goal defeat at the hands of Keith in the Kowree Naracoorte Tatiara netball grand final held in Kingston on Saturday.

In tough, blustery conditions Keith got the jump on the game to be six goals up at quarter time.

However, Penola made positional changes part way through the second quarter which saw it close the gap to just two goals at the main break.

With the game well and truly in the balance, the premiers quarter was a tight tussle which saw some great netball but the Crows used their strength to take a five-goal lead with just one quarter to play.

Keith played a controlled last quarter despite the Eagles giving their all to try and pull off a comeback.

The Crows proved too good for Penola as they rounded out seven-goal victors to claim the flag.

Keith's Fiona Evans was named best on court with a strong performance in the circle.

Evans scored 20 goals from 30 attempts and was supported by Mary Wachtel, who scored 19 goals for the Crows.

Karly Honner was the go-to player for Penola in the circle with 17 goals for the game.

Heart-breaking defeat for Penola in B Grade decider

B Grade:

Naracoorte 50 d Penola 47

Naracoorte claimed a dramatic win in the B Grade netball grand final on Saturday.

Penola started strongly with tight defence from Kim Wilson and Hannah Klemm to take a 12-9 lead at the first break.

However, Naracoorte's Sophie Ford forced turnovers to bring the Demons back in the contest to trail by just one goal at half time.

Intensity was high in the premiers quarter with both teams fighting for the ball and the Eagles extended their lead to three goals.

In the final term, Naracoorte kept fighting and capitalised on turnovers to end the game in a draw.

In extra time, the Demons were one goal up at the end of the seven minutes and managed to extend that lead to three to claim a thrilling win as the Eagles succumbed to a heart-breaking defeat.

Naracoorte's Abby Walker was named best on court with a dominant performance which saw her score 39 goals.

Penola's Sarah Eustace scored 26 goals, while Teegan Galpin scored 21 times.

Penola power: New team ready to hit the court

By Trevor Jackson

Tennis is set to return to Penola, with the inclusion of a team in the Southern Ports Tennis Association.

The team was created after the desire of a few Penola residents to again compete in the sport, after the Penola and Districts Tennis Association closed its doors in recent years. Organisers Jon Ey, Caroline McGrath and Daniel Hackwill are keen to get as many players interested in joining the fledgling club, prior to the competition's kick off date of October 22.

"We have been trying to get a team into the Southern Ports league for a couple of years now," Ey said. "We haven't had anybody that keen and interested, but now we have a group that wants to do it."

Ey said he was pleased to have a list of around 20 players, after recent posts on social media to put the idea out there.

A practice session will be held on Thursday, September 29 at 6pm at the McCorquindale Park courts, with a barbecue to follow.

Ey said any ages were welcome to join, with just the one grade in the Southern Ports association. Anyone interested in joining can contact Jon Ey on 0437 275 354, Caroline McGrath on 0427 009 048 or Daniel Hackwill on 0417 138 043.

"They always wanted to know how I went and were always up for a chat.

"They really supported me, which is good for a small town.

"When David got told he had Motor Neurones I thought I would have to do something at the next race.

"Little did I know he was going to pass away.

"Then I thought I would wrap the whole car as a tribute." To gain the round win was a fitting result, given the circumstances.

The whole process has raised in the vicinity of $6000 to $7000 dollars which goes directly to the MND South Australia Foundation.

Gartner simply described it as amazing.

"When I surprised the family with the car, two days before my 19th birthday, they said 'why don't we go to the pub and raise some money for this,'" he said.

"Considering it was a two-day turnaround, the donations from local businesses and everywhere has been overwhelming."

Gartner said he approached the weekend with the hope of a race win, which he said would be a fitting result for him and the Moulton family.

"I wanted a race win, considering the circumstances with the people on my bonnet," he said.

"To win with everything, with the fundraising and doing that for that family, it was the most fitting thing that could happen.

"I was top points Saturday night and I thought how good it would be to get my first round win in the scenario.

"When I got the first race win of the weekend I would have had 20-odd people all from my home town supporting me, clapping.

"It was very emotional, a lot of tears."

Demons just too strong

C Grade:

Naracoorte 40 d Penola 35

The Eagles were unable to match the Demons as Naracoorte claimed a five-goal victory to secure the Kowree Naracoorte Tatiara C Grade netball premiership.

Naracoorte took an early lead in the first quarter thanks to some accurate shooting as it pounced on every turnover created by the defenders.

However, Penola soon adjusted to the conditions to reduce the margin to just two goals at the main break.

Both sides increased their offensive pressure in the third quarter and created a number of turnovers.

The Eagles rebounded strongly to give their shooters ample opportunity to level to claw back the narrow deficit.

Both sides scored 10 goals in the third quarter, which set up an exciting finale.

The Demon's Lily Gil put in a strong performance at centre to create a number of turnovers in the last quarter and halt any progression made by Penola.

Naracoorte proved too strong in the final term as it claimed a five-goal win and Gil was named best on court.

In a low-scoring affair, Alice Auld led the goal-scorers with 26 for the game.

Magpies slog it out for win

By Trevor Jackson

Even the rain and mud could not hide the jubilation when the Kalangadoo A Grade footballers claimed the 2022 Mid South Eastern Football League premiership on Saturday.

Atrocious conditions greeted the Magpies when they faced a tough Hatherleigh outfit and despite playing at home, Kalangadoo could take little advantage considering the conditions.

However, a couple of key performances helped shape the contest.

In a fitting result, Tye McManus was named best on ground, after a tough clash in what could only be described as a mud bog.

There was little opportunity for key forwards, with a heavy ball not often kicked inside 50 clean.

However, Kalangadoo spearhead Michael Krieger showed how it could be done in any conditions, with a bag of six goals to help his side claim the flag.

For victorious coach Kevin Stark the achievement was certainly not lost as he joined his charges in the change rooms for a rousing club song.

When he emerged, his first thoughts were straight to the point.

"I am on top of the world," he told The Border Watch, between shaking hands and hugs by many passers-by.

Stark noted the desire of his players and what pushed them for success, with last year's grand final loss high on the list.

"No doubt last year there was a lot of disappointment," he said.

"It's not something we have harped on, but it is always in the back of your mind, even though it is not spoken about.

"I think it showed that drive – obviously we would have loved to win last year, but you can see how much that loss meant.

"You could see in the way the boys played, it meant a lot to get the result."

On Tye McManus receiving player of the grand final, Stark was equally pleased.

"We always speak as a group about endeavour and effort," he said.

"That will trump any game plan, any style of footy, especially a day like this where we have to go away from our normal plan.

"I thought he did that all day.

"For a dude who is not big, is not heavy set, he just grinds in and under all day, works hard and did a brilliant job."

As has been the case all season, Krieger would not be stopped and worked hard for his six goals.

Stark noted that performance, along with the whole forward pack, which resulted in a victory.

Premiers: Kalangadoo Football Club A Grade players, officials and others celebrate after their Mid South East football premiership victory.

"Kriegs dominated," was his simple response.

"He kicked six out of 11 goals, which is amazing, but it was not the plan to go to him.

"That was just how it happened a lot of the time.

"Before the game we spoke about our dangerous forward line, so a focus for us was to get it forward at all costs.

"We thought territory was key and we knew if we got it into our forward six we were going to generate opportunities.

"The goals weren't coming from clean marks and shots, they were coming from having to scrap one-on-one and work hard to win the footy.

"I thought the boys did that really well."

Stark described the conditions as "awful for football", but he said a plan they devised unfolded as he had hoped.

"I think we played the conditions really well," he said.

"We executed a plan we had with those conditions, so it is a massive credit to all the boys.

"With our rotations and everything else, the strength we had was the bench.

"Those four we had starting on the bench we thought was our key to success, with the depth of the whole squad."

Another key area was the mid-field.

Stark said part of his game plan was to not let Hatherleigh simply "bang it forward" after a stoppage.

He said he placed a lot of pressure on the mid-field to ensure that happened and was again pleased with how they performed.

"We thought territory was key, so we didn't want to let them outside and bang it forward," Stark said.

"We had a simple rule – if we don't win it out of the clearance, no one wins it.

"We knew how strong they were in their mid-field and ruck, so we wanted to make sure we kept them in and under the ball.

"I thought our mids did a good job of that."

At the end of the day, Stark said it was tough single out any particular performance.

He said the premiership flag was won by a solid team effort, with some obvious highlights along the way.

"As I have said all year, it wasn't six blokes who carried us, it was the entire group," Stark said.

"With our bench and how strong it was, we knew we were going to bat deep through that.

"I just can't name all the individual performances.

"I thought there were stand out performances across the board."

Battling weather, too, Magpies claim season honours

By Trevor Jackson

A Grade: Kalangadoo 11.16 (82) d Hatherleigh 3.3 (21)

Atrocious conditions met players for the Mid South East football A Grade premiership on Saturday, with the Kalangadoo oval resembling a bog, with standing water and mud as far as the eye could see.

However, it did little to dampen the enthusiasm on Kalangadoo and Hatherleigh, who fought out a tough contest in the trying conditions, with rain and wind throughout the game, along with the odd clap of thunder.

A large crowd had gathered for the spectacle, despite the conditions, with the rain forcing them to seek shelter numerous times throughout the day.

The Eagles had taken care of business just a few short weeks ago, where they easily accounted for Kalangadoo in the second semi-final, which provided the Magpies a little extra incentive.

If that was not enough, Kalangadoo also had some business to take care of, after completing the 2021 minor rounds undefeated, before falling to Port MacDonnell in that year's grand final.

Hatherleigh was never going to be a push-over, but it was the Magpies who came out victorious after taking half the game to shake off the shackles of the Eagles, with a big final term to push home their authority.

It all began with a tough first term, with a real slog ensuing in the poor conditions.

The home side took some advantage, after both teams had just two scoring shots.

Kalangadoo converted one into a major score, off the boot of Michael Krieger and led by five points at the first break.

With a strong wind blowing across the ground and to one end, the Magpies took advantage in the second term, working the ball around and forward at every opportunity.

The key was simply to bang it forward and prevent the Eagles from doing the same, which seemed to work a treat as the desire to claim the premiership cup was evident.

Best-on-ground Tye McManus was having an impact early, working hard in and under the contests around the ground, releasing the ball to his team mates and pushing forward.

Krieger was taking every chance to convert and by the long break the Magpies were on top, with a 36-14 scoreline.

The third quarter was somewhat of a stalemate, with neither side able to make a decisive break.

It was again Kalangadoo that led at the final break, but by the same 22-point margin as at half time.

However, from there the Magpies began to push hard, holding the Eagles scoreless in the final stanza as they had their way with the football.

The Eagles were lucky the final margin was not far greater, as Kalangadoo banged on five major scores and nine behinds to ice the game.

In the end it was a big 61-point win, with Krieger bagging six major scores to finish a dream day.

Alex Lyon kicked two goals, while Sam McManus, Ben Mules and Andrew Stone chipped in with singles.

Best players were no surprise, with Tye McManus topping the team list, from Mules, Krieger, Justin Bromley, Sam McManus and Mathew Fatchen.

Race for cure

By Trevor Jackson

Emotions flowed over on the weekend for Penola racer Brad Gartner for a couple of reasons.

Gartner has competed in this year's Circuit Excel South Australia State Championship season and came away with his first round win at the Taillem Bend circuit.

But there was more to the weekend than just a race victory.

Gartner had a special wrap on his car, dedicated to two neighbours who passed away from Motor Neurone Disease.

That added to the emotions, with plenty of tears shed when the round was done.

Regarding the weekend's races, Gartner said it was a huge effort.

"We got the win, top spot, which was massive," the 19-year-old racer said.

"It is one of the most competitive series out of the state level racing for Excels.

"We get on average over 35 competitors and we've had two races over 40 this year.

"We got a race win when we had 47 cars and I won the whole round this time with 42 cars."

The round victory came after two race wins, a second and a third in an impressive display of driving.

It was more impressive considering it was Gartner's first full season in the category, after completing just two random weekends last season.

"We started Round 1 this year and did the entire season," he said.

"Going off my numbers we will be third for the championship.

"Now we just have an enduro to go, not part of the championship, which will take place on November 19 at Taillem Bend."

To win the round with the wrap on the car, which showed the faces of his two neighbours, while also raising money for MND was the icing on the cake.

Gartner said it was an emotional time and explained his reasons for the venture.

"Our neighbours, the Moulton family, run a farm near us," he said.

"They have known me as long as I have been alive.

"Helen their mum died to Motor Neurones 21 years ago.

"I wasn't alive - I am only 19 now.

"Then 'Grub', David, passed away two months back for the same reason."

Gartner said he was very close to David as he was growing up and the family were always interested in his motorsport career.

"The Moulton family always came along and watched my races," he said.

"They always supported me with a bit of money every year.

Pine forest to roar into life for time-honoured event

The Teagle Excavations ARB Pines Enduro has arrived, set down from Friday through to Sunday at Millicent and through the Tantanoola pine forests.

In their bid for class and outright victories, teams will travel from across the country to contest the Pines Enduro 400, also in pursuit of the 2022 ARB Australian Off Road Racing Championship crowns.

This year marks the 43rd running of the event since its beginnings back in 1978.

The event comes after a huge achievement by the members of the Millicent Sand Buggy Club both present and past.

The Tantanoola forest and Teagle's Quarry come alive with the sound of off-road racing engines on this one weekend of the year.

Each year the attraction to compete over 400km's through the pine forests, high speed white metal council roads and the amphitheatre of Teagle's Quarry, brings a strong field of entrants eager to test themselves and their machinery.

The entrant list has been steadily growing since opening and is shaping to be a fiercely competitive race throughout all classes.

Brent Martin (#120) has had a stellar season so far, taking outright victory at rounds one and three and placing third in round two.

He currently leads the championship standings and he will look to finish on a high in his Class 1 Jimco buggy.

Both Glenn Pike (#675) and John Smith (#445) sit second and third respectively heading in to the round and a strong result here could see either jump to the top of the standings should Martin encounter trouble.

Previous championship and event winners are returning to the South East to contest the 400km enduro.

Aaron Haby (#1) has been victorious in the pines previously and the outgoing championship winner will be one of the favourites.

Danny Brown (#42) and father Andy (#45) both have new buggies this year and will hope to bring home some silverware, but

Greg Gartner will be in action this weekend at the Pines Enduro. Pictures: HARRISON MIELKE will have to overcome Martin Motorsports three cars.

As mentioned Brent Martin leads the team strongly and brother Dale (#5) has stepped up in an Unlimited buggy alongside father Craig (#25) who has been successful at Millicent before.

Every class is well represented and a host of local drivers will be in contention over the course of the weekend.

Andy Murdock (#66) and Dean Carter (#18) will both have tough assignments as they take on the weekend in the Unlimited class, both capable and competitive.

Kurt Stephan (#133) will look to gain some valuable experience as he tackles the gruelling event in Class 1.

Peter Tamblyn (#1042) is a seasoned campaigner hoping to use his experience in Class 10, along with Jake Douglass (#1041), who races his second event of the year in his newly-acquired Jimco buggy.

In their family built Murco buggy, Jake England (#223) will enter the event as a real chance in Class 2, while Greg Gartner (#410) will fly the flag for Penola.

Heath Weedon (#779) has shown great speed in Class 7, but has not had luck on his side so far and will hope Millicent can turn that around.

Connor Cooper (#729), a newcomer to the sport of off-road and taking on his first Pines Enduro, will look for a trouble free run.

Spectators are invited to Teagles Quarry in Millicent tomorrow ( Friday September 23) for the vehicle display and scrutiny of vehicles starting at 6pm.

Entry is free and catering is available.

It is a good chance to get up close to the off-road vehicles and talk to some of the drivers before the action begins on Saturday, with the prologue commencing at 10am.

At the conclusion of prologue, cars will be lined up for the short course racing around Teagles Quarry where all the racing can be viewed from the spectator area and on the big screen TV.

Sunday's main race starts at 8.30am, as the competitors head into the pine forests for the first time of the weekend.

Gate prices are $15 for Saturday and $10 for Sunday, with under 15s free.
