Time to lace up

After months of preparation and planning, the Coonawarra Running Festival has arrived.

The inaugural festival kicks off on Saturday, and has attracted runners from all around.

Coonawarra Running Festival was born from a desire to raise awareness and funds for Breakthrough Mental Health Research Foundation, with a mission that "together we can make a difference to mental health in our community."

The event offers something for everyone, and although registration for the races are closed, there is still plenty for you to get involved in.

On the day there will be an array of food including healthy poke bowls, fruit kebabs, homemade slices, salad rolls, pasta, hot chips, a barbeque and coffee and everyone is encouraged to support the food court as it will contribute a large part to the fundraising.

For those that enjoy shopping, be sure to check out the market stalls in Coonawarra Park - shop local for Christmas or treat yourself.

People who enjoy cars and vehicles should stop by the Show 'n Shine, where there will be a range of vehicles, old and new.

There will be music all day with impromptu interviews throughout the event, and face painting for the kids.

For those who don't wish to drive, there will be a bus leaving from Penola Information Centre at 8.30am, 9.30am and 10.30am, and returning from Coonawarra Park anytime before the next bus schedule from Penola, with the last bus leaving at 2.30pm.

Check out www.coonawarrarunningfestival.com.au or Facebook Coonawarra Running Festival for more information.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Hearty congratulations

I attended the Millicent Business Community Association event last Thursday to present their annual Business Awards.

These awards are clearly important to our business community. Award winners were proud and grateful for the support of their community.

The significance to some was emotional. It was as if winning the awards was acknowledgement of the hard work, the struggle of the past couple of years along with the range of personal pressures beyond what their work is.

Congratulations to all winners, you make a difference to our economic business.

Yours sincerely,

NEWS

Help festive appeal

Demand for support over the upcoming festive season is expected to increase as preparations are made for the annual Community Christmas Appeal in Wattle Range.

Wattle Range Mayor Des Noll said council is pleased to be partnering with the Millicent Combined Churches to assist with the 2022 Community Christmas Appeal, as he began to sort the donations that have already been collected.

"It is important that we continue to think of others at a time that they need us most," he said.

"We are urgently calling for volunteers and cash donations from across the entire Wattle Range region.

The hampers, which contain food, books, toys, vouchers and other essential items, will be distributed to those in need across Wattle Range just before Christmas.

"Last year we distributed almost 160 hampers. With so many still affected by the impacts of the pandemic, as well as increased cost of living pressures, we are expecting the need to be even greater this year."

The Community Christmas Appeal would not be possible without the ongoing support of the wider community, and organisations such as the Millicent, Beachport and Kalangadoo Lions Clubs, the Wattle Range Lions Club, Foodbank, Millicent Community Learning Centre, Millicent Mens Shed, AC Care, St Vinnies Mount Gambier, Kimberly Clark, and the St Anthony's Catholic Primary School.

2021 Christmas Appeal hampers being packed and distributed.

Anyone interested in volunteering some time to assist with the Appeal can register by emailing events@wattlerange.sa.gov.au.

In addition, cash donations can be made at the any of Council's Offices and food donations in the yellow boxes which will be placed at local supermarkets.

Any enquiries can be directed to Council on 8733 0900 or Shaun Mulick, Millicent Community Church on 0427 963 490.

Lions feed the hungry

Penola Lions new Driver Reviver Food Van had its first outing at the show last weekend.

Used to serve all the BBQ food cooked by Lions volunteers it proved to be a wonderful respite from the strong winds and rain experienced over the 2 days of the show.

Club President Jeff Hoare said the club reported very good sales as good hot food at a reasonable price was what people wanted.

"The rostered members worked very well under the conditions," he said.

"We had several members who were ill and could not help and others who are away travelling but we still managed to cope with the strong demand and not keep people waiting."

The new food van was funded by the Commonwealth Government as a Driver Reviver Road Safety Project and has been fitted out locally and is now ready for use.

New members wanted

The Riddoch Business and Community Association (RBCA) will be holding its Annual General Meeting on November 22 at Royal Oak Hotel, from 6:30pm to 7:30pm, and is calling upon members of the community to attend.

The RBCA has spearheaded local events such as the Christmas Street Party, Stuffed Santa competitions, Late Night Shopping, as well as using social media and its website to promote the community and be a voice for the local businesses.

These events have incredible social and economic value for Penola and are vital to the area, while the support offered to businesses and the awareness created by a vibrant online presence is priceless.

However, these initiatives take time and effort, and with the organisation surviving entirely on volunteers, the RBCA is calling for new committee members to come onboard and lend a hand.

As with any organisation of this nature, the committee is aware of the need for fresh voices and enthusiasm to continue these fantastic initiatives as well as creating new ones along the way.

With that in mind, the RBCA committee is asking for people to not only attend the upcoming AGM, but also put their hand up for one of the leadership positions or nominate someone else who may be suited and could be approached to join.

A role on the Association's committee is incredibly rewarding and offers invaluable experience in many varied ways but, ultimately, it's a great way to give back and help improve the local community of which we are all stakeholders.

"The more people we have putting their hands up means that we have greater resources when organising and running these events," RBCA Vice President Hannah Timms said.

"The more we can do as the RBCA, the more the community benefits."

Next month will see the return of Late-Night Shopping for Wednesday November 30 while coming up in December is the Christmas Street Party where jolly old Father Christmas will be making a special appearance.

The street party is sure to be fun for all ages with activities for the kids, food stalls and much more.

As well as that, the always popular Stuffed Santa competition is back for 2022.

Santa's must be installed by December 1 with voting to again be done online by community members and visitors at www.penola-coonawarra.com.

Kerrie McLean secures fourth Champion Rose win

By Kathy Fennell

Long time Penola show supporter and avid gardener, Mrs Kerrie McLean took out the grand champion rose for the fourth time at this year's show.

Kerrie's first win was back in the 90's. She had also been runner up once.

This year's winning rose was a David Austin called Golden Celebration.

"With the very odd weather conditions of late I didn't think I would have any roses to enter, let alone having the champion, so it was a big thrill to take out the prestigious prize.

Runner-up this year was Meredith Hinze who has also featured as a winner and runner up in recent years.

The junior champion rose award went to Harry Davidson with Max Mulligan taking out the runner up award.

Old garden with a purpose

Beautiful wrought iron gates in a high stone wall mark the entrance to The Glen at 35 Wilson Lane, Glencoe.

For the first time these gates will be open to the public to raise funds for the Glencoe Woolshed heritage restoration.

The 14-acre property at Glencoe consists of six acres of garden and an organic orchard with loquats, cumquats, feijoas and crab-apples. The original stone house built in 1910 was semi derelict and surrounded by compacted driveways and fenced yards when purchased in 2010.

The new owners, Carol and John Berger, spent the first few years renovating the house and cutting through the vegetation in order to start creating a garden.

Passionate gardeners, they had no particular plan or theme other than to create a number of garden rooms.

There are now three roughly circular outdoor rooms focussed around specimen trees.

A large golden elm, a birch tree, and a round rose garden that was originally a horse training yard.

Carol said "The idea of rooms comes from the Victorian idea of a pleasure garden which can be strolled through after dinner with different vistas to help clear the mind and help the digestion."

New lawns and garden beds have been added with a golden willow walk planted from cuttings.

The expansive garden at Glencoe, The Glen, will soon be open to the public for the first time.

Picture: SUPPLIED

Flowering cherries line the drive and a bush garden is planted mainly with natives and succulents.

Approximately 200 roses have been progressively planted, with 100 bearded irises, a selection of dahlias and perennials and a collection of different lilacs and wisterias.

A wall at one end of what used to be a bowling green includes a lion's head fountain.

Several guinea fowl roam the garden helping to control insect pests.

The Glen will be open Saturday and Sunday, November 12 and 13, 10am to 4pm.

Other attractions on the day include Quince HQ, Wagner's Roses, Botanical cosmetics, Carousel flowers, Metro coffee, tea and cakes and a sausage sizzle.

Views on council building

This week, we asked all the Wattle Range candidates "How do you feel about the proposed new council building?"

Gregory Moore did not respond in time for publication.

CORCORAN

John Drew

It's necessary. Anyone who has seen the current working conditions will understand something must be done. Having staff work in three rented facilities in Millicent is not good for productivity nor for the legal requirements for work places. As much as many residents may be attached to the old school building it is unrepairable and too small. A new building is the best solution. Other sites have been examined and none compare with the site at the old netball courts. It's less expensive to build there and there is space without tearing down the RSL Clubrooms or losing the Jubilee Park.

The suggested building isn't beautiful but it's practical. Landscaping will solve the appearance problem. It will look fine and professional. Cost wise, it is the responsible solution.

It will never be as cheap as it is today. Further delay will blow out costs.

Dennis Muhovics

I support the proposed new council office complex for the following reasons, but with some financial expectations.

The current office is no longer fit for purpose, being too small, in poor condition for its 100-year life, and difficult to access due to its location. The council staff are currently working in four different locations, two of these being leased properties. One of the CEO's KPI's is to manage all staff, but this is extremely difficult due to the spread of the staff. I believe the location is the least contentious, with it not being on parkland and being owned by council, hence no cost, having the ability to expand and has the area for an appropriate car park.

I voted to support Councillor Price's motion to keep the cost of the building to $5.5 million. The project is currently being costed and the final decision whether to progress will be up to the new councillors. It is important to me that when the final plans are approved, no alterations should occur or there will be cost blow outs which will hugely impact on the project. All staff and current councillors have had the opportunity to have input into this new building.

This is my opinion and not necessarily the view of the Wattle Range Council.

Moira Neagle

Over this last term of Council, the Elected Members have discussed numerous aspects with regard to the proposed Council Service Centre. There have been long debates over the site, the design, how it can sit in the landscape and the cost. What has been settled on to this point is a functional design to contain the cost which is what we believe the ratepayers would expect of us.

This building has to increase work efficiencies of staff, improve communication between sectors, and accommodate the service needs of the community - all this for many years into the future. My husband and I have been involved in the renovation of an old farm house and we have learnt that to achieve a quality build to meet our needs, costs. There is a lot to this new Council building; it has had to meet numerous criteria. Yes, it is a lot of money and our Council is in a position to afford it over the coming years.

So, it is time to move ahead and I say this with a sense of excitement as to what it will mean for our Council and our community.

David Walshaw

There is no doubt that a new administrative hub is needed for Wattle Range Council and the proposed North Terrace site is the most suitable location.

Architects are working on detailed designs and costings and then the final decision will rest with the incoming 2022-26 council.

In my view, the cost will be a "red button issue" with news reports this week indicating that the price of building materials has risen by 16pc in the past year and there are predictions by mainstream economists that the inflation rate will soon exceed 7pc.

Given such factors, Council must closely scrutinise the contract it will strike with the builders and ensure the cost of the new administrative hub does not blow out.

I have overseen major building projects in my previous working life as a senior public servant such as the $6 million extension to Sheoak Lodge aged care facility which was delivered "on time and on budget" under my watch when I was the Millicent Hospital Chief Executive.

Wattle Range Council elected members will not have a day to day role in the construction of the new administrative hub as I did with Sheoak Lodge.

However, councillors have the responsibility to ensure the new administrative hub is delivered promptly and in a cost-effective manner while all financial aspects are transparent to the wider community.

Peter Dunicliff

At some stage in the future Council will have to upgrade the Administration Building. Present offices can no longer provide standards expected for inside staff. Due to prudent management this Council is in the position to build new offices now at minimal cost to ratepayers, and should proceed with a new building.

Lee Morgan

I have always said that staff need better accommodation. Having a fourth large $9.5 million

Chris Brodie

Council building in a fourth location within a town of 5000 people does not make sense! (the other three buildings are the Civic and Arts Centre, The Visitor Information Centre, and the Works Depot). An economic impact study on the remoteness of this location to the businesses in the Millicent CBD should be undertaken. I am concerned about the duplication of meeting areas, kitchen facilities, and rooms that are already within the underutilised Civic and Arts Centre (that needs urgent outside maintenance) and is only 675 metres away! Clarity should also be sought on the state government's view on Council mergers.

RIDDOCH

Chris Brodie

I see the need for the new council building to replace the current building which needed to be done many years ago.

The proposed building is a simple, functional design which will allow council staff to meet the ever increasing demands from communities, government legislation and to provide a decent working area for staff.

Dean Burrow

It does not really matter how I feel about the New Council Building.

The importance factor in this debate is how the residents of the Riddoch Ward feel about spending $9.2 million on the proposed New Service Centre.

So far not one of the residents living in the Riddoch Ward that I have spoken to, supports the $9.2 million spend. However, they do support the staff being provided with safe and comfortable working conditions.

At the beginning of the debate on the Service Centre, nearly 50% of the Elected Members were opposed to the location away from the Library and Civic Centre.

Based on the feedback I have received from residents, I cannot support the proposal.

Emma Castine

In relation to the proposed new council building, I would have to admit, as a newly returned resident of the region, I have not seen and am not aware of the issues facing the Wattle Range Council. Whilst it is important for our staff to have a safe and friendly work space, I would only note that 9 Million seems excessive in a regional area. I would like to see grants and other ways to fund us into a more appropriate and multi-use building. This is a topic I would be debating and discussing with the residents of the Riddoch Ward.

KINTORE

Carrie Adamo

Wattle Range Council absolutely needs a new office building. It is unfortunate it didn't happen 25 years ago on amalgamation.

Today I wonder about the decisions behind the proposed development. There is a chance there could be super sizing of council districts over coming years, as has happened interstate. We may not want this but we have been through this before. If we were to ultimately join with other Limestone Coast Councils, building new offices in Millicent would be pointless.

I worry that 80 work places for staff in the new offices could be old fashioned planning. Today we can work from anywhere and just come together on need. With new technology and work practises we are limiting our flexibility.

Let's not rush this.

Sharon Cox

The new council service centre is needed as the existing building was built in the 1930 as a school is no longer fit for purpose. It is beyond renovation and does not meet current safety standards or legal requirements. I would encourage ratepayers to take a tour of the current office, to have a better understanding of why we need to build a new service centre.

Richard Cassidy

There is no doubt a new fit for purpose service centre is long overdue. The current design in its basic form appears to tick all the boxes for a more cohesive and inclusive staff environment.

Richard Cassidy

How to go about funding and ensuring that the project is completed on budget will be a huge challenge for council. I would like to think that, if I'm elected, with the combined team of councillors we should be able to come to an equitable outcome for the community.

I would also like to encourage rate payers to go onto the Wattle Range web site and view the proposal power point presentation and consultative information presented.

SORBY ADAMS

Deb Agnew

I am a strong supporter for the proposed new council building, even though I am not necessarily in favour of the proposed site.

The current building does not provide adequate facilities for staff nor will ever meet the growing demand from our community.

Dale Price

I support the construction of the new Council

Dean Burrow

Service Centre. While I still think the location is the wrong one, for the long term efficient delivery of services the project needs to proceed.

Increasing demands from the State government, difficulty attracting & retaining qualified staff & inadequate working conditions where staff are spread across multiple sites is not conducive to effective service delivery. While the cost needs to be managed very closely, history shows it should be cheaper to build today than tomorrow. Going out to tender will give Councillors the information they need to make the final decision in 2023.

Robert Stewart

I believe the new council building being built on the old netball courts up behind current location is perfect due to being still close to Millicent CBD and will allow Wattle Range Council to better serve it rate payers in more modern and updated environment

Full house for Lions club

By Caroline Hammat

Last Tuesday's planned walk around Lake McIntyre and a barbecue to celebrate seniors month was interrupted by poor weather.

Last minute changes meant the BBQ went ahead at the Millicent Lions den instead with about 20 people still taking the time to walk the circuit at Lake McIntyre.

Over 100 people were served barbecued meat and salads supplied and served by the Millicent Lions.

Jeff and Joan Ellis celebrate 70 years of marriage.

70 years together

The Ellis family recently enjoyed lunch at the Somerset Hotel to celebrate Jeff and Joan's 70th wedding anniversary.

Married on November 1st, 1952 the couple have seven children Jeffery, Tony, Marion, Robert, Susan, Tommy and Heather.

There are 21 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

Jeff was born in Penola and Joan was born in Merbein, Victoria,

They met at the Merbein pool where Joan splashed Jeff to get his attention.

Jeff worked as a lighthouse keeper until a few years after they started a family they moved to Penola, living in a small house with the seven children.

Moving on from being a lighthouse keeper, Jeff found work as a mechanic and Joan worked in the vineyards.

Eventually Jeff became a cray fisherman at Southend and they moved to the small coastal village.

After some time at Southend the couple moved to Millicent.

Jeff loved playing golf and Joan loved playing bowls.

The couple retired in Millicent and they now live at Boneham Aged Care Services in the town.

Olivia's art a feature at Penola

By Kathy Fennell

Former Penola woman, Olivia Coutts, was a guest speaker at this year's Penola show.

Olivia created a stunning flower display from scratch using items that you would have in your back yard or shed.

The demonstration attracted a large attendance who were enthralled with her presentation.

She also created a stunning foyer display with roses and foliage using accessories and an old fashion sewing machine.

There were also two flower bomb displays which attracted a lot of attention.

Olivia said she was thrilled to have a good audience was very excited to come back to her home town to show her displays.

Lindeman's clean sweep

A classic Coonawarra cabernet sauvignon has dominated the 2022 Limestone Coast Wine Show.

Lindeman's Wines 2019 St George Cabernet Sauvignon was awarded the Bill Redman Trophy for Best Wine of Show at the celebration dinner held at the Robe Mechanics Institute, after earlier collecting the HR (Ron) Haselgrove Trophy for Best Cabernet Sauvignon (Current to 3 Year Old), the Trophy for Best Individual Vineyard Wine and the David Wynn Trophy for Best Red Wine of Show.

Chief of Judges, Samantha Connaw, described the winning red as a stand-out among 465 entries. "It's a wine that encapsulates the very best of what the Limestone Coast has to offer," she said.

Grapes for the limited-release St George Cabernet Sauvignon are sourced exclusively from the 45-year-old St George Vineyard in Coonawarra, with viticulturist Ben Briggs collecting the Arthur Hoffmann Trophy for Viticulturist of the Year. Lindeman's Wines' astonishing trophy haul climbed to seven when the 2019 Lindeman's Limestone Ridge Shiraz Cabernet was awarded Best Blended Red and the 2019, 2014 and 2008 vintages of the same wine won Best Wine of Provenance.

Judge Philip Rich praised its consistency and common stylistic thread.

"They were three excellent wines with demonstrated ability to age well; it illustrated both the variety and the region well," he said.

The 2022 Ottelia Riesling made with grapes grown in the Kongorong area southwest of Mount Gambier won the Colin Kidd Trophy for Best White Wine of Show and the Karl Sepelt Trophy for Best Aromatic White Wine. "It just had everything – it was a wine that jumped out of the glass with lovely flavour, and you just wanted to drink more," said judge Liz Heidenreich.

Landaire based at Padthaway Estate was

Sponsor Fil Farina from Elders Naracoorte, International Judges Award recipient Anita Goode from Wangolina with International Judge Jane Skilton MW another big winner with a four trophy haul; the 2021 Chardonnay won the Pam Dunsford Trophy for Best Chardonnay and was named the Chief of Judge's Wine to Watch. Landaire's 2022 Rose won the Trophy for Best Rose, with judge Cath Oates proclaiming it a "fresh and delicious stand-out".

The family-owned company's Padthaway Estate Eliza Blanc De Blancs was named Best Sparkling Wine for the second year in a row, again winning praise for its beautiful complexity and balance.

Meanwhile, it was a triple trophy treat for Wangolina. The Mount Benson winery's 2021 Wangolina A-Series Tempranillo won the Peter Wehl Trophy for Best Single Variety of Italian, Portugese, Spanish Heritage, and cemented the region's reputation for outstanding shiraz when the 2021 Wangolina Originals Syrah won the Small Batch Experimental Wine Award and the International Judge's Award.

New Zealand judge Jane Skilton MW described it as a modern take on a traditional style that was true to its origins.

"I was looking for deliciousness above all else, but it was also a fresher wine with slightly lighter tannins," she said.

"The Limestone Coast's reputation is built on wines that age which is brilliant, but if you're going to get some of the newer consumers who want to drink wines of provenance and place but maybe don't have the appetite for long aging and want more of an immediate style, this is a terrific wine."

Trophy for Best Rose was Presented by sponsor Paul Bowyer from Blue H2O Filtration to Carolyn Brown from Landaire Wines

Rounding out the awards, the 2022 Reschke R-Series Malbec won Best Single Variety of French Heritage, the Eric Brand Trophy for Best Shiraz went to the 2018 Wynns Coonawarra Estate Michael Shiraz, and Coonawarra also came to the fore with the Brands Laira 171 Cabernet Sauvignon claiming the Trophy for Best Cabernet 4 to 6 years old. The 2013 Peppertree Wines Block 21A Cabernet Sauvignon from Wrattontully won the Ewen Fergusson McBain Trophy for Best Museum Wine, and Padthaway's Farmer's Leap Wines won the Trophy for Most Successful Exhibitor.

A total of 43 gold medals were awarded during the 21st anniversary event after two days of judging.

Top display for motor enthusiasts

Motor enthusiasts will be treated to a unique vehicle and stationary engine display on Saturday 10am-2.30pm at this year's Millicent Show.

Vehicle owners including cars, bikes, trucks and tractors will be arriving on the day to share their pride and joy with the public.

Unique vehicles are still welcome to register for the event up to 5pm today at Roger Smiths Auto Parts.

Mowers to cut laps at the show

The South Australian Lawn Mower Racing Association (SALMRA) was formed to grow and promote the sport of lawn mower racing in South Australia and in turn raise money for charity and local communities.

Following nine events in SALMRA's first 12 months of racing, lawn mower racing will be back at the 2022 Millicent Show.

Lawn mower racing is a fun and affordable form of motorsport with racing classes ranging from standard mowers all the way up to Super Modified mowers running 450cc motorbike engines.

Ready to rumble at demo derby

For over 20 years Jim and Joe Garner and a dedicated team of car enthusiasts have delighted crowds with the Millicent Show's demo derby.

This year is the 23rd year the unique spectacle will be held and no doubt a large crowd will gather at the oval's edge to see the drivers set out to destroy the cars built especially for the event.

The standard four cylinder road cars are stripped of glass and flammables and safety roll cages fitted for safety.

Once the flag is dropped friends become foes and the drivers battle it out to be the last car standing.

Don't miss any of the action packed destruction taking place Saturday afternoon following the grand parade at 3.15pm.

Toyota's rogue element

By Derek Ogden, Marque Motoring

With the Hilux Rogue, among the varied dictionary definitions of 'rogue' comes 'an individual deviating from the normal, usually inferior'.

My time with Toyota's MY21 top-dog ute had a complaint or two.

For a start the Aussie-designed and developed motorised roll-top tub cover pulled up short, literally, on my first attempt to store it, jamming inches away from being fully retracted.

No amount of pressing opening and closing buttons freed the apparatus.

A little less annoying was the key fob, which was erratic with its door locking and unlocking functions activating only when a few metres from the cabin.

Equivalent automotive security systems usually can be operated from greater distance to the vehicle: often handy in a crowded car park.

Generally, it's a credit to local engineers and designers, who were tasked with producing a combination of toughness, complemented by a more recreational focus for a vehicle designed to go anywhere and be sold in markets around the world.

Toyota Australia's role in developing and evaluating the 2.8-litre four-cylinder turbo-diesel engine, rear suspension and hydraulic power steering was supported by teams from Japan and Thailand, as well as representatives from other markets.

The Rogue sells for $68,990, plus on-road costs and options.

The HiLux, in general, continues its reign as the best-selling vehicle in Australia and like all Toyota vehicles is covered by Toyota Service Advantage, with each of the first scheduled services costing just $250 each.

Out of Toyota's Melbourne design studio comes a dark vertical grille that cascades from the bonnet down to the prominent lower bumper and under-guard.

LED headlamps, with dark internals, combine with bold outer corners of the bumper, which links to strong fog lamp surrounds.

An aggressive side profile continues the theme with robust fender flares, unique wheel-arch mouldings and an integrated resin sports bar making its debut.

Wheel-arches also are generous enough to take bigger, fatter alloys than the factory-fitted 18-inchers.

A new sports bar, made from resin, is easier to mould than steel, allowing it to have a more artistic 'sailplane' shape.

Out back are redesigned bumper and tailgate.

The tub itself is kitted out, up the walls too, like a fully carpeted lounge room, with marine-grade, the liner lifting appearance and coverage.

The design makeover is made complete by a chrome Toyota tailgate badge and new decals on the tailgate and sports bar.

The cabin is dominated by hard surfaces, which is hardly a serious criticism for a hard-working ute.

However, coming to the classy rescue are black perforated leather-accented seats with grey outboard accents.

The front seats are heated while the driver's seat has eight-way power adjustments.

Front and rear carpet mats are included for Rogue.

There's a deep cubby in the centre console and a double-decker dash-mounted glovebox, the upper section cooled.

Door storage includes convenient bottle slots.

Pride of place is a larger eight-inch display touchscreen plus control knobs, an upgraded multimedia system with Apple CarPlay or Android Auto, and a premium JBL nine-speaker sound system.

A little inconvenient: Sticking point ... the HiLux Rogue tub top on test was low on convenience.

One USB point and two AC 220-Volt accessory sockets are standard.

Restyled instruments consist of an analogue speedo and rev counter with blue pointers flanking a 4.2-inch multi-information display, which now incorporates a digital speed readout and a pictogram showing the angle of the front wheels.

Satellite navigation is easier to use with enhanced voice recognition, while other additions include an electro-chromatic rear-view mirror, new ornamentation and blue illumination.

The upgraded 1GD turbo-diesel engine now develops 150 kW at 3400 rpm and 500Nm between 1600 and 2800 rpm, gains of 15 per cent and 11.1 per cent respectively.

The six-speed automatic transmission was recalibrated to allow earlier lock-up for improved acceleration and to ensure Toyota's temperature tolerances, especially when towing, were observed.

The HiLux Rogue carries a five-star safety rating on 2019 testing and is equipped with Toyota Safety Sense, including a pre-collision system with autonomous emergency braking and the ability to detect pedestrians around the clock and cyclists in daylight.

It is also equipped with high-speed active cruise control, lane-departure alert with steering assist.

Electronic systems include anti-skid brakes, vehicle stability and traction control, brake assist and electronic brake-force distribution, trailer sway control, downhill assist and an emergency stop signal (hazard lights).

Like every HiLux, the Rogue is equipped with seven airbags and a reversing camera.

Driving has been made easier than before by work done on the rear suspension, improving unladen ride comfort while a new variable flow-control power-steering pump offers more help in low-speed manoeuvres such as parking.

Braked towing capacity has been uprated by 300 kg to 3500 kg, courtesy of the higher-output engine and a recalibrated six-speed electronically controlled automatic transmission.

Toyota claims a combined urban / highway fuel consumption of 8.4 litres per 100 kilometres.

The test vehicle worked out at 11.7 litres per 100 kilometres in suburban streets down to 6.4 litres per 100 kilometres when on the motorway.

Improved ride and handling are all-encompassing with the MY20 Rogue.

Leaf springs and shock absorbers were retuned to improve unladen ride comfort without compromising the vehicle's ability to carry loads over uneven terrain, while low-friction rear shackle bushes add to ride comfort.

Rear stability benefits from leaf spring front bushes with increased lateral stiffness.

Revised chassis mounts reduce vibrations and noise transfer to the cabin, particularly on rough roads.

A variable flow control power-steering pump improves steering feeling on winding country roads and reduces steering effort when parking.

Pity about the outside 12.6 metre turning circle.

There's also a low-range mode for off-road driving.

The Rogue is up against some of the stiffest competition in the premium luxury ute market.

It's fair to say the power roll top would be considered an important selling point for the Hilux 'hero' and the failure of the accessory on test is not what we have come to expect from Toyota.

YOUR WEEKLY TV GUIDE

SURVIVOR 9Go!, Thursday, 7.30pm

Now in the thick of the 43rd season of the show he has hosted since day dot - that's 22 years ago, in case you're trying to do the maths - it's slightly unnerving to hear Jeff Probst's thoughts about the reality show's favoured Fiji location. "I hope we stay here forever," Probst said. He's obviously an admirer of the island's beautiful scenery, but at this point fans can only imagine the eternally tanned host somehow setting up this long-running hosting gig in the afterlife. Tonight, the castaways are still feeling their way through the heat, physical challenges, fledgling alliances and food fights, but we all know they can count on Probst's reliable presence.

KING TUT: ALLIES AND ENEMIES SBS, Sunday, 8.30pm

The ancient Egyptian king has been a source of fascination and intrigue for history buffs and students alike since his treasure-filled tomb was unearthed in Egypt in 1922. This captivating, movie-length doco commemorates 100 years since the discovery of the "boy king", using modern technology to shed new light on the story of the nine-year-old pharaoh. Egyptian co-hosts Yasmin El Shazly and Mahmoud Rashad explore the mysteries and unanswered questions, using access to government officials and even an active dig site to paint a clearer picture of King Tut, which includes cutting-edge technology generating a clear picture of his face.

LONG WEEKEND IN... WITH RORY O'CONNELL SBS Food, Wednesday, 8pm

Besppectacled Irish chef Rory O'Connell (pictured) exudes charm and sophistication and his travel and food series, premiering this week, is packed full of culture. There's quaint train rides, glorious city scenes and exquisite food experiences, as the Cork-born foodie travels to eight different European cities in an extravagant "long weekend" sojourn. He kicks off the sort of short holiday us Aussies can only dream of in Palma De Mallorca, Spain. The itinerary includes an art nouveau bakery where traditional ensaimada pastries are made. This attractive eight-part series includes jaunts in Edinburgh, Lisbon and Copenhagen.

PICK OF THE WEEK

MY MUM, YOUR DAD Nine, Monday, 7.30pm

File this modern dating show in the "so bad it's good" cabinet. Don't dismiss this unique series following single parents searching for a second chance at love; it features their children secretly watching and pulling the strings behind the scenes. The cheeky format is the brainchild of screenwriter Greg Daniels (Parks and Recreation) and his daughter Haley (The Office), with freewheeling Kate Langbroek (pictured) hosting this Aussie version. The result is surprisingly heartwarming, if a little creepy. Premiering tonight, if you can withstand the cringe-factor as parents' love lives are orchestrated by their kids, the special bond between a parent and child is both funny and fascinating.

NORTH GAMBIER 8.8 (56) d
KYBYBOLITE 0.1 (1)

Round 4 of Limestone Coast Women's Under 16 football was held at Vansittart Park under lights on Friday.

The fixture opened with a one-sided affair between home team North Gambier and Kybybolite.

The Tigers were off to a quick start on their home deck with eight scoring shots in the opening quarter.

They converted three to be up by 23 points at the first change, before Kyby could put the brakes on somewhat in the second term.

Despite holding the hosts to just three minor scores, the visitors were only able to convert a single behind, leaving plenty of work to do after half time.

Albeit that would be Kyby's only impact on the scoreboard for the night, while North finished accurately with three straight goals in the third quarter, followed by two in the fourth.

At the final siren the damage was 55 points, which handed North a percentage-boosting win to keep it safely locked in second place.

Top performers for the match were Georgia Gentile, Heidi Berkin and Yenna Joyce, with the former named best on ground.

Goals were shared around, with all three girls adding one each as the Tigers enjoyed seven individual goal kickers.

Jazz Cowling was the only Tiger to score multiple, with two majors to her name, along with a mention in the best.

Penny Coleman and Luca Roulstone also upheld their recent form to be named among the top contributors.

For Kyby it was a tough day at the office, but Amelia Frick provided some highlights as she played a best-on-ground game.

Summer Batchelor and Zara East were also valuable for the northern Tigers, who are yet to taste victory this season.

SOUTH GAMBIER 4.10 (34) d
KONGORONG 2.1 (13)

The second match of the night was a grand final rematch between South Gambier and Kongorong.

However, unlike the 2021-22 decider, the Hawks could not get the job done, with the Demons' supply into the forward line pushing them into the winner's box.

Kongorong had the better of the first quarter and kicked two goals to South's 1.1.

An inaccurate second term had the Demons register seven unanswered behinds, which was enough to stick their nose in front heading into the main break.

A tight third term followed, with just one minor score for the term from South, with three points the difference heading into the final stanza.

Lilah Rowe puts the icing on the cake as she lines up for goal with the last kick of the game.

With the game still in the balance, the Demons put the foot down and a three-goal quarter sealed the deal for a 21-point triumph.

Jarrah Altschwager was in impressive form and the vice captain received the best-on-ground honours for the victors, while Isabella Morello, Lilah Rowe, Sophie Wight and Tilly Salmon also played their roles well.

All four goals for the match came off a different boot, with Altschwager joined by Bailey Broome, Lilah Rowe and Wight on the scorer's list. Kongorong looked to Lilly Gordon as best-on-ground, while Cedar Scott and Jordy Hera-per also featured highly.

Stevie Collins and Lacey Hannaford both found the big sticks, but in the end the Hawks lacked the firepower on the night.

After four rounds Hatherleigh – who enjoyed a bye this round - remains on top of the premiership table undefeated.

North sits in second a win clear in either direction, while South has a one-win advantage over fourth-placed Kongorong and Kyby sits in fifth.

Series winds up with test

A small field of just 10 drivers fronted the starter for the last round of the 2022 Motorkhana Series at the Glenburnie Saleyards Complex on Sunday.

Jason Sims and Bev Shute put together an interesting set of tests to keep the drivers entertained and were lucky enough to see some sunshine.

Test 1 layout, Double Bone, got things under way on a dry surface, with plenty of grip for those serious competitors.

Damien Wilson found enough grip to claim fastest time in the first attempt, clear of Jason Sims by 1.1 seconds, with Ken Trimmell another four-tenths behind.

Phil Wilson was next home, with four-tenths of a second the gap to him and Will Argoon.

On the second attack Damien Wilson pulled another 1.3 seconds off the previous time for another first spot from Phil Wilson, who found a better line, six-tenths behind his brother and the same margin in front of Jason Sims, also a second quicker than his first attempt.

Ken Trimmell held on for fourth spot and Ashton Slotegraaf was just 0.011 seconds behind in fifth.

Next test layout, Gables, saw Damien Wilson, Phil Wilson, Sims and Trimmell finish one, two, three and four in both runs.

Slotegraaf came home in fifth on the first run, with Argoon fifth in the second run.

Triple Loop had been chosen for the next test layout and Damien Wilson headed the group, from Sims, Trimmell, Phil Wilson, Slotegraaf and Argoon for the first run.

Sims got the spot in the second go from Trimmell, Phil Wilson, Damien Wilson in fourth – after collecting a flag on the way – and Slotegraaf again fifth.

Next setup, Gable Slalom saw the same group 1-5 with Damien Wilson first, Sims second, Trimmell third, Phil Wilson fourth and Slotegraaf fifth in both attempts.

Manoeuvring was the next layout, with Damien Wilson continuing to set fastest time for the first run, from Sims, Phil Wilson, Trimmell and Argoon with the gap from first to fifth only 5.5 seconds.

Second pass and Sims scored the top spot from Phil Wilson, Trimmell and Damien Wilson – with another marker penalty – heading Slotegraaf in fifth, with the margin cross the top 5 only four seconds.

Bandit layout was next and again Damien Wilson found speed and set the pace from Trimmell, Sims, Phil Wilson and Slotegraaf for the first attempt.

On the second run Damien Wilson improved by two-tenths of a second and set fastest time on from Sims, Phil Wilson and Trimmell, with Geoff Wilson in fifth spot.

After a lunch break, Mothballs layout saw Damien Wilson fastest, from Sims, Phil Wilson, Trimmell and Slotegraaf.

The second pass saw the finishing order for 1-4 the same, but with junior Henry Sims making it home in fifth spot in the family Celica.

Corridor again saw Damien Wilson scored the first points from Jason Sims, Trimmell, Phil Wilson and Geoff Wilson all about one second apart.

Jason Senior came home in first spot in the second run from Phil Wilson, Trimmell, Slotegraaf and Geoff Wilson.

A crowd favourite, Try Angles was up next and Ken Trimmell enjoyed the layout on the first attempt, home ahead of Damien Wilson by 2/100th of a second (28.04 to 28.06) from Jason Sims, Phil Wilson and Slotegraaf.

On the second pass, Damien Wilson led the way from Trimmell, Jason Sims, Phil Wilson and Slotegraaf.

Next layout, Double Loop, is a quick test and Damien Wilson made another fastest time from Jason Sims, Trimmell, Phil Wilson and Geoff Wilson with the gap from first to fifth less than three seconds.

The second run saw Jason Sims make it to the top spot by 1/100th of a second from Damien Wilson (27.02 to 27.03), with Trimmell a half a second behind, then Slotegraaf and Phil Wilson.

Still enjoying a dry surface and keeping an eye on the approaching weather, the director set up Square Slalom.

Damien Wilson made it home from Jason Sims, Phil Wilson, Trimmell and Lindsay Beare in fifth.

Jason Sims tidied up his run and set the pace in the second run to head off Phil Wilson, Damien Wilson, all on 23 seconds (23.05, 23.72 and 23.82) with Trimmell fourth and Beare again in fifth.

The last change to the test for the day, Accordion was the choice and, no surprises, Damien Wilson headed the pack home with Jason Sims, Phil Wilson, Trimmell and Slotegraaf in the first run.

Sims had a better run in the second pass to top the sheets from Phil Wilson, Damien Wilson, Trimmell and Slotegraaf.

Both club juniors Henry Sims and Max Virtanen were right up with the more seasoned campaigners and will feature in the top runners in the not-too-distant future.

Placings for the final round of the 2022 series will be influential in the count for the year, as the top five spots were close at the end of Round 4.

Outright positions for Round 5 saw Damien Wilson first with a total time of 750.00 seconds, including three five-second penalties along the way.

Jason Sims came home in second place with a total time of 753.39 seconds, Phil Wilson third (775.59), Trimmell fourth (784.98) and Slotegraaf fifth (849.49).

The next event for the South Eastern Automobile Club in The Legend of the Lakes, to be run at the Valley Lakes area on November 11, 12 and 13.

The fast Anthony Norris will return to the Legend of the Lakes hill climb this year and look to remain at the pointy end of the field.

Fast weekend for Norris

By Trevor Jackson

It is a long way from an Adelaide wrecking yard to the Legend of the Lakes hill climb, but for Anthony Norris, it has become a regular pilgrimage.

Norris runs Grand Auto Wreckers in Reynella, a Nissan and Datsun wrecking yard specialising in 4x4s and SUVs, through which he has been a sponsor of the hill climb since its inception.

But on his time off the pace of everyday life changes and one weekend a year he roars up the Valley Lakes looking to remain at the pointy end of the Marque Sports class.

He has the right equipment under him too, with a well-prepared Nissan Silvia, S15, 200SX, which he uses to good effect at various other hill climbs throughout the year.

But Mount Gambier, set to roar into life on November 11, 12 and 13, holds a special place in his heart, for many reasons.

"I can't praise them up enough," Norris said of the South Eastern Automobile Club who run the Legend of the Lakes hill climb.

"The organisation is amazing and the volunteers do an amazing job.

"If there is an incident on the track they are straight onto it and don't hold up the productivity of what is happening during the day.

"It is always a sensational event."

As a sponsor, Norris has been allowed to do runs on Fridays, which he used well last year.

"Last year on Friday, straight off the bat I almost broke the record first run up the hill," he said.

"Everyone was astounded by the run.

"I thought the car felt good so I put the pedal to the metal, took it to the limit and did the fastest time of the day.

"I am honoured to be allowed to run on the Friday."

Norris's rear-wheel drive Silvia is in basic form.

The SR20 turbo charged is standard and produces 340 kw at the rear wheels.

It runs an R33 Nissan Skyline gearbox, is lowered with good suspension components, a roll cage and sticky tyres.

Norris is regularly at the pointy end of his class and simply puts it down to experience and seat time in the car.

At 52 years of age Norris has no real plans on slowing down, with the sport of hill climbing well entrenched in his family.

"I just love hill climbs," he said.

"I think it is in my blood.

"My father is a state champion – Jim Norris over in NSW – and every time there is an Australian championship we fly each other over and race each others cars.

"Unfortunately I can say my father beat me by two-tenths of a second in my own car.

"That is hard to say.

"But he is 78 and building his next race car, a 350z with 370z running gear."

As for the course at the Valley Lakes, Norris said it is sensational.

"The track is really good, it is very well prepared and very fast," he said.

"Up the top of the hill, the bus stop, is amazing the way they have set it up.

"I also find the on-camber, off-camber section going through the esses really special.

"You don't think of the guard rails on each side of you, you just concentrate on getting to the top as fast as you can."

Fast he certainly is, with speeds of around 150 to 160 kilometres per hour up the open section before standing on the brakes for the bus stop, equating to course times in the low 50-seconds.

That particular section is another of his favourites.

"It is a beautiful thing the way they have set the bus stop up," Norris said.

"You get to the top and see the full crowd up there and wow, just seeing the crowd is inspiring."

At the end of the day Norris certainly enjoys his time in Mount Gambier for what has become a must-do event on the hill climb calendar.

His hopes for this year, apart from good weather, are quite simple.

"It is such a great atmosphere and the rivalry is good," Norris said.

"But I just want to have fun, enjoy myself and drive it on the trailer at the end of the weekend."

Tuna run heats up in east

By Jamie Coates

A breezy but fishable weekend across the Limestone Coast was taken advantage of by keen anglers, with plenty of fish caught right across the board.

The offshore fishing at Port MacDonnell has been busy over the last week or so, with plenty of fish coming off the bottom.

The shark fishing from 50 metres through to 100 metres has been good again and as per the last few weeks, a good mix of schoolies and gummies have been caught, with fish of both species over 20kg.

To go with the sharks, the reef fish have been great too.

We have seen some red snapper, blue morwong and flathead, along with a few nice snapper.

In trolling news, Port MacDonnell is yet to see any action from the second tuna run, but the Portland fishing has heated up.

There have been some nice fish caught over there in the last few days, from around 80 kilo, through to one caught by James Varcoe, Jason Fulham and Dylan Tincknell that was over 128kg.

The boys landed a couple of fish and both fell to a pair of Troll So Hard lures which are all hand made here in South Australia.

Over the weekend a few anglers had a crack off the beach and found some nice fish.

Young gun Connor Maidment landed his first legal beach mulloway on Saturday evening with a ripper 85cm fish caught at Browns Bay.

The guys also managed a few smaller gummy shark, which were released for another day.

The back of Beachport along the five and 10 mile beaches fished pretty well for gummy shark and salmon this weekend.

Speaking to a few of the locals from down that way, apparently the beaches from Carpenter Rocks through to Beachport were like Rundle Street.

One bloke compared it to the Kingston comp weekend, the beaches were so busy, so to catch a fish with all that going on tells me there must be plenty around at the moment.

The Coorong fishos have had much the same, gummy sharks, salmon and a few mulloway too.

The beaches seem to be getting better up there week by week, and I would expect that to be the trend from now on.

The stir up over the last week or two has been great for whiting fishos across the region.

The swell and wind whipped up a bit and gave the water back a bit of colour.

The land based fishos have had it a bit tricky with the wind and swell being a bit of a hindrance in quite a few spots, but those who are not afraid to brave the wind and rain have ended up with some nice bags full of whiting.

The areas worth a crack if you are land based are still Cape Douglas, Carpenter Rocks or the Port MacDonnell jetty.

The boaties have been doing well in similar areas, they have the ability to chase the fish around until they find them.

Gar numbers are still good, as is the size – it is just the weather that is holding us back.

The fishos in more exposed areas such as Livingstons Bay or Pelican Point have really had to pick their days, whereas areas offering a bit more protection like Cape Douglas or Hutt Bay have been a bit more accessible, even on the average days.

The by-catch is still mullet and salmon trout, but a few decent tommy ruff have been sniffing around too.

There are still a few squid when the weather allows and we are seeing some big samples too, including the odd fish over 3kg.

The Glenelg River is filthy.

The water coming down from its inland catchment areas has turned the river into a chocolate milkshake and while there are still fish there, they are playing hard to get.

The estuary area or around the Nelson township is probably the best bet for bait fishos at the moment to target a few bream.

When the tide is incoming, the flow is slowing up, so those lower sections at the moment are probably the pick.

Lure fishos have found the odd perch over the weekend, but metal vibes or quite heavily weighted soft plastics have been the go-to.

Mulloway have been tough.

I have not heard of any in the last week or so and I would expect that to be the tune until we see the flow slow a bit and the clarity start to return.

Until next week, safe fishing.

Has there been a better time to be training a greyhound

By David Lewis

IT was in 2013 – not so long after TAB racing commenced at Tara Raceway – that the Mount Gambier Greyhound Racing Club (MGGRC) built its first slipping track at the Lake Terrace East venue.

In fact, the MGGRC was the first in SA to construct a slipping track – a fenced area where greyhounds could safely free-gallop as part of their training regime.

These days, there are two tracks, side by side.

MGGRC president, Noel Perry, said the automatically-watered tracks had been of great assistance to the local “back yard” trainers involved in the sport.

“We’d like to see more of these types of trainers involved,” he said.

“You certainly don’t need acres of land to train a greyhound providing there is access to free galloping.

“Plenty of good dogs have come from back yard environments.”

Perry said the club was now hopeful of making the slipping track area into a complete training facility with the addition of a “bullring” which could be a popular innovation for many trainers.

A bullring is simply a miniature track which is operated manually and is a great education tool.

It gives young dogs an introduction to what is required when it comes to chasing an artificial lure.

“Shortly, we will be talking with Greyhound Racing SA (GRSA) representatives regarding the proposed upgrade of the training facility,” Perry said.

A bullring used to train young greyhounds.

Picture: SUBMITTED

“We believe not only will it be of benefit to all trainers in the region, but also to greyhound racing in general.”

Perry also said a proposed business plan by Adelaide-based GRSA director David Lewis looking at increased participation in greyhound racing in South-East was to be the subject of a forthcoming workshop in Mount Gambier.

“David has put down six key components of what he believes need to be worked through with Mount Gambier club representatives,” he said.

“Among the topics to be discussed are ‘How do we attract new trainers?’ ‘How to train a greyhound and keep it healthy’ and ‘What does GRSA need to do to support new trainers?’

“As far as an introduction to greyhound racing goes, it has been suggested a 1-2 hour seminar at Tara Raceway to go through all aspects of becoming a trainer.

“Also suggested has been a visit to an existing trainer and quality promotional material.”

A look at an old South East Greyhound Racing Club race book makes for interesting reading.

Not so many interstate greyhounds racing at Tara Raceway back then but trainers were nominating from larger SA towns such as Naracoorte and Millicent – and plenty of smaller ones as well.

Interestingly, at one stage Naracoorte had been seriously considered as the spot where the South-East greyhound track would be built.

Such was the greyhound population at Millicent that a Millicent Cup day was held annually at Tara Raceway.

These days there are no racing greyhounds in either town.

So what does greyhound racing currently look like in Mount Gambier?

Twice-weekly meetings – Thursday: $50 trainer fee plus $50 unplaced. Time-Graded – stake money $850 to $1540 (total). Sunday: $50 trainer fee plus $40 unplaced. Category 2 – stake money $1255 to $2265 (total). Feature events include the $25,000 Group 3 Mount Gambier Cup.

Tara Raceway is a fully appointed TAB track that races over distances of 305m, 400m, 512m, 600m and 732m.

The track includes a standalone kennel house (refurbished, best practice) and a large clubhouse with bar, kitchen and TAB.

So, with prizemoney at an all-time high and with the prospect of even further training facilities at the track, is there a better time to be training a greyhound in Mount Gambier?

Rain means players work for every point

Round 2 of the Southern Ports Tennis Association was played on Saturday and despite the weather, players were able to hit the court.

Lucindale Wombats v Kingston

After some early rain, play eventually started at 1pm at Lucindale.

Kingston pushed the Wombats to the edge and with a final countback on games, the Wombats claimed victory on their home court.

Tom Handbury put in a strong performance to claim three wins which included a pairing with Eliza Handbury to take out a 9-4 win in the top doubles.

Eliza Handbury claimed an exciting victory over Bianca Cuneen with the final score 6-4, while Toby Longbottom returned and helped strengthen his side with a dominant 6-0 win in his singles match.

France/Lucindale Eagles v Penola

It was a difficult day on the lawn for Penola, with the unfavourable conditions forcing Penola to work for every point.

The Eagles claimed a convincing win and were boosted by the return of Tarrant Fudge.

Caroline McGrath was the standout performer for Penola after she claimed some much-needed sets for her side.

Robe Rebels v Lucindale Cockatoos

With both teams struggling to fill a side, everyone was happy to just field a team on the court.

The mixed clashes were tied up as both teams claimed three sets each.

Robe's number 2's, Simon Ferguson and Kimberley Austin claimed an impressive win over Jack Grundy and Sally Schultz.

Lucindale's number 3's, Tim Legoe and Andrea Bucket, sealed a victory over Andrew Thomas and Em Vasek.

Robe flexed its strength in the singles with eight wins out of 12.

The Rebels' Jed Regnier, Andrew Brown and Kimberley Austin along with Lucindale's Bucket all claimed convincing wins.

Elsewhere, Ferguson claimed a tight 7-5 victory over Grundy.

Afternoon tea was interrupted with a trip to the Kingston Hospital and Robe losing its number 5 woman, thankfully all ended well and she made a full recovery.

The Rebels won four out of their five doubles with Vasek and Michelle Smith claiming a close 10-8 win and Robe came away winner for the day 15-9.

Beachport v Robe Roosters

Beachport started the day strong and claimed five of the six mixed doubles sets.

However, Robe hit back to secure five of the six men's sets.

Robe's Egan Regnier and Paul Reins each sealed comfortable victories, with the former winning 6-2 and the latter 6-0.

Beachport was too strong in the women's affair and the doubles were an even affair as Beachport claimed 14-10 victory.

Lucindale Koalas v Naracoorte

The mixed doubles were closely contested with the Koalas taking a one-game lead heading into the singles.

Leanne Graetz and Leanne McCarthy started the Koalas' break away with 6-3 and 6-2 victories.

Sam Graetz and Jared Oliver continued the winning for the Koalas before Will Malone and Steve Biggins claimed much-needed sets for Naracoorte with 7-5 wins.

However, the Koalas were ultimately too strong on the grass as they claimed the doubles four sets to two to secure the win.

Leanne Graetz, Jess Legoe and Alec Ross all win three sets for the Koalas while Will and Jen Malone won three sets for Naracoorte.

In the end, Lucindale claimed a 14-10 victory.

After two rounds of action, the Wombats and Koalas hold top spots on the ladder with two wins from two, the Robe Roosters and Penola are yet to claim a win while every other team has won one and lost one.

Rain affected round, but some play on

By James Murphy

Wet weather threatened Round 3 of Mount Gambier and District tennis over the weekend, but there were still some matches completed.

In the Division 1 competition on Saturday the fixture between Uniting Church and Reidy Park was called short due to the rain after just two sets had been completed.

However, over at Olympic Park Centrals/Uniting/Gambier and West Gambier were able to complete their encounter, albeit with a couple of interruptions to clear water off wet courts.

At the end of the day the combined team claimed the honours in a tight contest, with just two games the difference after both sides won six sets each.

Andrew Van den Hurk proved hard to beat in the top men's singles, with a 6-1 win over George White, while Ben Gaffney also won for Centrals/Uniting/Gambier with a 6-3 result over Shaunn Robinson.

Brady Cook chipped one back for West in the men's singles with a 6-2 victory over Dane Heemskerk.

The women's singles had Tessa Megaw claim a closer 7-5 win over Jessica Stutley, but the remaining two rubbers were won by West.

Emily Jolley defeated Alita Huyser convincingly with a 6-0 scorecard, while Ella Jolley accounted for Rylee Seidel 6-3.

The doubles followed the same trend and with three sets each, it came down to game difference to decide the overall result.

The closest doubles rubber was played between Huyser and Seidel against the Jolleys, with the latter pair winning 7-5.

Over at Mount Schank the home team was able to host Glencoe for another completed Division 1 fixture.

However, the home-court advantage was not enough on the day, with Glencoe too strong as it claimed a 10-2 set win.

Alex Laube won his singles against Will Hann 6-0, while the only other success for Mount Schank was Nell Eastough's 6-4 win over Jorja Mitchell.

Dylan Childs was too strong in the number one men's singles to win 6-0 over Oscar Geddes and Patrick Mitchell defeated Brendan McInnes 6-2.

Rounding out the women's singles, Sarah and Laura Edwards claimed 6-1 and 6-2 results over Abbey Hood and Kaitlyn Nisbet respectively.

Glencoe won all six doubles sets to stamp its authority on the round.

The closest rubbers were a couple of 6-4 victories, as Patrick Mitchell and Hann combined for the win over McInnes and Laube, while Mitchell and Laura Edwards managed the same result against Eastough and Hood.

Weather challenge for junior cricket

By Jock McClure, young junior cricket contributor

Last weekend saw some regular players welcomed back into the team for the Naracoorte/Penola Under 14 cricket side.

The game was held at Wortley Oval in Naracoorte, where they faced an in-form Millicent.

The day saw a mix of sun and overcast conditions and despite the rain, the game went ahead as scheduled.

The Naracoorte/Penola U14s won the toss and captain Bernie Watson elected to bat.

Last week's openers, Bryce Caitlin and Sid Ebert, played a solid innings, both retiring.

Ebert made the most runs of the two, adding 11 and Caitlin two.

Watson and Lachlan Gericke were next to the crease and while hitting the ball hard, Gericke was unfortunately bowled out, adding four runs off eight balls.

In came Darcy Pilkington, but a miscommunication with Watson saw Pilkington run out without facing a ball.

Jock McClure found some form this week, which saw both he and Watson retiring.

Watson contributed nine runs to the total.

Eamon Southern joined McClure at the crease before the latter retired on 10.

James Bull was next to bat, only joining Southern for a short period of time, with the latter bowled out for just one run.

Charlie Cox had a short partnership with Bull, both out quickly, then tail-enders Sam Gericke and Jack Pilkington headed to the middle.

Both lasted the distance, with Gericke run out on the last ball of the innings.

With the help of some extras, Naracoorte/Penola finished with 6/58.

The second innings got underway with Millicent off to a slow start, hitting mainly singles and the odd two runs with, Watson and Lachlan Gericke bowling consistently.

However, after the first five overs, the Naracoorte/Penola bowling hit a slump.

McClure was hit for 17 runs off his first over and did not bowl again for the rest of the day.

Shortly after, Bull got the first wicket of the day, as Watson took a catch to claim the prized Millicent batsmen, Ryder Linder.

A few balls later the next wicket fell, with McClure taking a catch off of Darcy Pilkington's bowling to remove the new batsmen.

Charlie Cox was next wicket taker, with Lachlan Gericke holding a strong catch.

Wickets soon dried up, but Southern took a late wicket which saw Millicent wrapping up the innings and the game on 4/109.

Extras were costly for Naracoorte/Penola, which is something they hope to minimise next week when they face the Mozzies at Mount Burr Oval.

Best player for Naracoorte/Penola was Sid Ebert, who received the Naracoorte Sportspower voucher.

In other results, South Gambier defeated West Gambier by two wickets, while Mil Lel convincingly beat Mount Burr by nine wickets.

Jock McClure enjoys his cricket and loves to write about it. His work has recently appeared on the pages of the Penola Pennant. Picture: SUBMITTED

Mixed results in for Pennant teams

The Penola Women's Division 1 Red Pennant team claimed a strong win over Millicent Blue by 33 shots on Friday with the final score 60-27.

In the other clash, Mount Gambier RSL Red was too good for Penola's Division 1 Blue team as they went down 28-54.

Saturday's Open Pennant saw the Division 1 side fall short to Mount Gambier Red 51-69, while Penola's Division 3 South lost to Port MacDonnell Red by 54 shots.

The Division 3 North side had a much closer encounter with nothing to separate Penola and Frances as the teams tied on 84 all.

On Sunday, the GI Cancer Day was set to be held but was postponed until April 1 due to the weather.

However, the fundraising event still went ahead with a number of prizes won in the raffle.

Items were auctioned off to help raise funds and at the completion of the day, over $780 was raised for the cause.

On Friday, the Women's Division 1 Red team will host Port MacDonnell, while Division 1 Blue will travel to take on Mount Gambier RSL Blue.

Robe will host the Open Division 1 side, while the two Division 3 sides are both at home.

South will host Beachport and North will host Kingston Red, while Sunday will see the Majella triples mixed bowls taking place at 1pm.

Magic women cruise to win

By Lachlan Onions

The Portland Coasters were no match for the Millicent Magic women on Saturday in Round 5 of the Country Basketball League season.

The Magic recorded a huge 106-61 point victory to put the rest of the league on notice in just their first outing of the season.

A 26-11 opening term suggested it would be a long night for the Coasters, despite the home-court advantage.

However, despite the statement that was sent by the Magic in the first quarter, Magic coach Damien Venn said his side were "scratchy" to begin with.

"We were a few player short due to state trials, so we only went over there with six players," he said

"The girls started off a bit scratchy - which you would expect first game - and then after that they were pretty good."

From there the large margins continued, with Millicent claiming the second term by 11 points and the Magic began to gel together in their first hit-out of the campaign.

"Those girls have all played a bit of basketball together so it did not take them long (to gel)," Venn said.

It was the third quarter which hurt Portland the most, as the Magic put on 35 points to the Coasters' 22 to snuff out any chance of a come-back from the home side.

A more subdued final term saw the Magic relax somewhat with the contest already in hand, but they still outscored the Coasters to the tune of five points.

"I reckon we ran out of legs probably in the last quarter but when you've only got six players, you've got to expect that," Venn said.

He also said it is hard to keep the foot on the pedal when leading by upwards of 30 points.

Emily Winter was impressive, with 34 points to her name, while Jasmin Howe added a solid 29, with four three-point bombs to keep the Coasters defence on their toes.

Georgia Winter joined her sister with 17 points, while Alana Berkefeld (formerly Winter) managed 11.

"It was a pretty good team effort, obviously Jasmin and Emily were both the most dominant on the offensive end," Venn said.

"Emily Winter was solid on the defensive end."

The Magic's experience came in handy as the Coasters fielded a young side.

"The core of this team hasn't changed much," Venn said.

"We didn't play last year, then you had two years of Covid, then you go two years before that and they won it back-to-back and the core of this team is the same as those teams three, four years ago."

Relentless Coasters at home too good for Millicent men

By Lachlan Onions

It was a tough night for the Millicent Magic men on Saturday when they travelled to Portland to take on the Coasters in Round 5 of the Country Basketball League season.

The Magic could not match the strength of the Coasters in any of the four quarters, succumbing in the end with a 112-58 result.

The Coasters hit the floor running, but did not shake loose of the Magic in the opening term, with a seven-point margin at the first break.

"We just weren't dropping shots in the first quarter and could not get going at any stage," Magic coach Darren Dean said.

"The boys had dropped their heads a bit at the quarter-time break.

"It was probably our worst quarter of the season but we were only seven points down, so I said if we could hit a few shots and contain them we were back in the game."

However, the Coasters blew out to a 34-point lead thanks to a relentless quarter from the hosts.

A 27-10 term put the Magic on the back foot and they did not recover.

The third term went to the Coasters to the tune of 12 points, while a stinging final stanza (35-17) ended the game in style for the victors.

Portland managed to cruise to victory in the second half as foul trouble meant the Magic had just four players on the court for the final nine minutes of the game.

"The four payers who ended on the court - Austin Fuller, Declan Hurley, Harry Schultz and Jackson Dean - they fought it out until the end," Dean said.

"Portland was pressing for the whole second half, even with the four players on to their credit and our boys stuck at it and fought through till the end."

Kade Bradley (14) and Austin Fuller (10) were the only two Magic players to reach double figures in a game the side will need to put behind them.

"They (Portland) were quite good on the night offensively and we were unable to contain the three or four players we had earmarked who were going to be threats," Dean said.

He said his side will review the game as a group before they face Portland again when they host the Coasters on Saturday night.

Lambert claims victory with 74 on a countback

In drizzly, wet conditions, there were 12 women who braved the weather for the monthly medal final and stroke round at the Millicent Golf Club.

The monthly medal was a hard-fought contest between Alex Lambert and Virginia DeDonatis.

There was little to separate the two A Graders as they both ended with scores of 74, with Lambert claiming the honours on a countback.

Sue Ireland claimed a two-stroke win over Lois Tilley in B Grade, while Mardi Sunderland, Lana Barlow and Debbie Tincknell were ball-winners. Lambert was also the winner in the nine hole comp with a score of 35.5.

DeDonatis and Barlow were the nearest to pin winners for the third and 13th holes, while Tincknell and Ireland claimed the nearest to pin honours for the second shot on the 17th and fifth.

It was a difficult night for Frazer Bradley and the Magic as they were comfortably defeated by the Portland Coasters.

Eagles hopeful to play

By James Murphy

Barber Shield cricket was cancelled due to wet weather last week and Penola will now be eager to complete a full game when it hosts West Gambier for Round 3 on Saturday.

At the time of print the forecast looked promising, yet the weather of late has been nothing if not unpredictable here in the South East.

Currently the reigning premiers are yet to complete a full round this season, with their opening fixture against North Gambier called short due to wet conditions.

As such the Eagles sit third on the premiership table with only a no result to their name heading into this week's one-day clash.

West on the other hand completed their Round 1 match, with a solid victory over Mil Lel.

Justin De Jong and Jake Blackwell were the main run-makers for the Roos in that clash, with 69 and 63 respectively.

Trent Badman (24), Niall Easterbrook (16) and Ned Wilke (16) also breached double figures.

West will hope for a similarly diverse attack this week, as Penola boasts plenty of firepower with the ball.

Zac Zema and Paul Ellis both claimed multiple wickets in Round 1 and will look for strong performances again this week.

The pair claimed 2/11 and 2/10 respectively, while Joshua Doyle also claimed a scalp against the Tigers.

Of course, West has its own talent, with Badman entering the round off a four-wicket haul at the expense of just 19 runs, while Kyal Chapman managed 2/6 off three overs against Mil Lel.

Penola's batting remains somewhat shrouded in mystery for 2022-23, having yet to take to the crease for a full innings.

Based on last season's title success, Jack Mullan can be expected to stand tall again.

He averaged just shy of a half century a game in 2021-22, with 48.58 runs a match.

Mark Smith also featured in the top four Barber Shield batsmen based off averages last season, while Lewis March and Drew Clayfield were reliable throughout the year.

It is hard to predict the result for the round - should it go ahead - with so little to go off for the year so far.

However, the reigning premiers should be well placed for their first win of the season on home turf.

Sophie Pearce selected in state squad

By Kathy Fennell

Talented 10-year-old Penola athlete Sophie Pearce has been selected in the South Australian Under 12 track and field team.

Pearce has always been an active child and first started running competitively at the Mary MacKillop sports days of which she is a year-five student.

She joined the Penola Little Athletics club at the age of six and has had success at the South East regional days, winning champion athlete for her age group in 2020 and 2021.

She also competed in four events in Adelaide at the state individual championships earlier this year where she placed in all events.

This year she has represented her school at the SAPSASA Millicent regional day before being selected to compete in the 100m, 200m, relay and shotput in Adelaide at the state track and field competition in September. Based on her times in Adelaide she was then selected in the same events to represent South Australia in Brisbane from November 17 to 21.

"I travel to Adelaide to train each Saturday and also have some local training with Eloise Giles in Penola in the lead up to the Brisbane event," Pearce said.

"I love running and am very excited to be selected in the state team."
