Tennis court redo

Courts at the Penola Tennis Club will receive a face lift after the club received a $41,200 grant.

The tennis club was one of 44 infrastructure projects across the State to receive a portion of the $5.5m Community Recreation and Sport Facilities Program investment.

The grant funding will be allocated to resurfacing four current tennis courts at McCorquindale Park with the club vice president Sam Davidson claiming the current courts were "unsafe and unusable".

The northern four courts had not been resurfaced since first being installed with the future use of the courts determining how often the courts would need to be resurfaced.

It is expected with regular maintenance the courts will service users for the future with the newly resurfaced courts able to be used for tennis in the summer and netball in the winter.

Mr Davidson said the club was thrilled to receive the grant with a lot of time and effort going on behind the scenes.

"I have only played a small part in that," Mr Davidson said.

"It will be a huge upgrade in what is already the best sporting facility in the South East."

Minister for Sport and Recreation Katrine Hildyard congratulated the hardworking volunteers in local sporting clubs and organisations.

"Sporting clubs are often at the heart of communities across South Australia, playing a crucial role in improving the physical, mental and emotional wellbeing of South Australians and often giving people a really important sense of belonging," Ms Hildyard said.

"This funding is about improving facilities for the future and helping clubs to be more inclusive and accessible for current and new participants.

"I am really proud this funding will support the efforts of clubs as they go about supporting and including people in their communities through sport and recreation."

Penola Tennis Club vice president Sam Davidson is extremely happy on winning a grant to resurface the courts.

The new courts will also offer an opportunity for Penola to host multiple tournaments as the facility will have eight functional courts for use.

Bordertown also received a large grant from the program.

Early bins

By Charlotte Varcoe

Millicent residents who have their kerbside waste bins collected on a Friday are being encouraged to put their bins out an hour earlier to allow waste disposal contractors Cleanaway more time to get to Caroline Landfill.

Cleanaway requested council to alter the kerbside collection start times after attempting to work alongside the new closing time of 2.30pm at the Caroline Landfill.

The changes to the opening times was made by Mount Gambier City Council about 12 months ago in an effort to provide more time to accurately apply the cell's daily cover.

According to a Wattle Range Council report, Cleanaway has the "highest workload" on Fridays with trucks collecting the bins, travelling to the Waste Transfer Station in Mount Gambier to be weighed before travelling out to the Caroline Landfill for disposal.

Cleanaway is currently investigating which streets in Millicent will be directly affected.

Wattle Range Council director of engineering services and waste management Peter Halton said Cleanaway was working with the knowledge of the new closure times for over 12 months now yet recently notified council requesting the change of services.

Mr Halton said Cleanaway had attempted to work within the new closing hours of the Caroline Landfill yet were finding it difficult, thus prompting the review.

He said council was supportive of the new hours presented to council which also worked in with the Environmental Protection Noise Policy due to written consent from the Environmental Protection Authority.

Mount Gambier City Council general manager city infrastructure Barbara Cernovskis said the new hours were part of council's approach to managing the Caroline Landfill.

"We informed all contractors about the new hours about 12 months ago," Ms Cernovskis said.

"We changed the hours to allow staff time to apply the daily cover."

She said council was also expected to have its Waste Masterplan finalised close to the end of the calendar year.

Brownes celebrate diamond anniversary

Launsley and Gwenda Browne (nee Munn) celebrated their 60th diamond wedding anniversary with family and friends at the Millicent Gliding club on Saturday, April 29th.

The couple met through mutual friends in Naracoorte and had known each other for many years before Launsley proposed in 1962.

They were married at the Saint Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church in Naracoorte on April 27th, 1963.

Growing up in Tantanoola Mr Browne worked at Cellulose for many years and Ms Browne lived in Naracoorte working for OA Dickson.

After they were married Ms Browne transferred to the Millicent store of OA Dickson.

Following their wedding the couple settled in Millicent and went on to have three daughters Carmel Renehan, Merryn Marshall and Deirdre Browne.

"Strong family values, a high level of resilience and a deep love for each other has helped our parents through some difficult times" Ms Marshall said.

"These same values have been passed down through the generations of three children and eight amazing grandchildren, their husbands and partners, and seven gorgeous great-grandchildren."

Gwenda and Launsley Browne recently celebrated 60 years of marriage.

Shenanigans at festival

By Kathy Fennell

The ever popular Shenanigans music event will feature again at this year's arts festival at the Coonawarra hall.

The dance floor has been polished in readiness for those that love to jive and if you want to go Organiser Simon Weston said the event has always been a very popular hit on the festival program and attracts both locals and those from afar.

The genre includes country, rock and roll and european inspired by traditions shaded with gypsy jazz.

This year's stellar line-up includes Sophia Whitney, Billy Barker, The Royal High Jinx, The Cartwheels and Mum's Favourite.

Dinner will be available from 6.30pm with the food being catered for by Pipers of Penola.

Full bar facilities will be available

Tickets are selling fast and it is advisable to book online as there will only be limited tickets available at the door.

Buses will leave the Prince of Wales hotel carpark and will return late at a cost of $5 cash.

Event low key affair

By Caroline Hammat

King Charles III Coronation held this Saturday May 6th will be a low key affair in the Wattle Range district with no official acknowledgement of the historic occasion planned.

This is in stark contrast to the pomp and ceremony across the nation during the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II June 2nd, 1953.

As reported 70 years ago in the South Eastern Times functions and events were held across this district to commemorate the occasion.

In Millicent a street procession by hundreds of school children, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts and Brownies was led by the Millicent Primary School drummers.

Ex-servicemen from the R.S.L. formed a column near the Cross of Sacrifice.

The groups marched to the Institute hall for a public service led by Mr J. Corcoran MP and Millicent District Council Crs J.A. Sullivan and R.C. DeGaris.

The hall was packed for the public service with Mr Corcoran MP commenting on the loyalty of the people of Millicent and that he hoped the children in the audience would live to see the Queen's reign blessed with constant happiness and prosperity.

Following the public gathering the Girl Guides planted 26 Lagunaria tree seedlings in Aitken Street to commemorate the Coronation.

Mount Burr, Glencoe and Beachport all held Coronation balls, with reports almost the whole population attended the Beachport C.W.A. ball in the town's institute hall.

Over 100 years of Coronation keepsakes forms part of Colleen Hammat's Royal memorabilia collection.

Royalist, Colleen Hammat, was in grade six at Millicent Primary School during the Coronation and received a second place prize for her message of loyalty written to Queen Elizabeth II.

The presentations, which preceded the march, took place on the front lawn of the school with Mr Corcoran M.P. presenting awards to several students.

All students received a copy of the New Testament from the State Government as part of the commemoration.

"I'll be watching the Coronation on TV, I'm still loyal to the royals," Ms Hammat said.

The Coronation of King Charles III can be viewed on several television channels from 5pm on Saturday May 6th or streamed online.

Message of hope

By Caroline Hammat

Keynote speaker Kym Inglis's life changed forever in 2010 when he lost his wife, two daughters and a close family friend in a car accident.

On Friday May 12th at 7pm Mr Inglis will be at the Millicent Civic and Arts Centre to share his story and his journey of overcoming adversity.

It is an important message of hope, strength, courage, grief and vulnerability the Adelaide based speaker has shared with others across the nation.

Mr Inglis has a goal to help humanity maintain hope and resilience, remain open-hearted and encourage others to seek support.

The free event is hosted by the Wattle Range Suicide Prevention Network (WRSPN) and supper is provided.

WRSPN secretary Marg Chapple said they really encourage people to attend.

"It can be a bit confronting but it is about hope, strength, resilience, courage," she said.

"It is not all about a sad story, it's about Kym's courage and resilience."

Organisers are hopeful for a good attendance and RSVP is not essential but encouraged to help with catering.

Interested guests can RSVP by emailing wattlerangespn@gmail.com or by calling in to Alternate Life, 51 George Street, Millicent.

The event is a result of grant funding received by the WRSPN from Wellbeing SA.

Opportunity closing to have your say

Community feedback consultation on the future of the Millicent Saleyards ends tomorrow.

The saleyards require almost $1 million in major upgrades to remain open and cattle throughput has continued to decline since an independent review in 2018 recommended its closure.

Council voted to defer further expenditure on saleyard upgrades at their March meeting until further notice.

Wattle Range residents have until 5pm on Friday, May 5th to submit a survey on the council's website.

Written submissions marked 'Future of Millicent Saleyards' will also be accepted and can be hand-delivered, emailed or included as part of the online survey.

Consultation for the installation of traffic calming measures in the vicinity of Millicent's Gladys Smith Early Learning Centre also ends tomorrow.

Concerns were previously raised about pedestrian safety and two potential measures for traffic control on Bonshor Street have been identified.

A new venture for Cathy

By Caroline Hammat

After 31 years working for Wattle Range Council (WRC) Cathy Bell has resigned in her position of Manager administration.

Ms Bell commenced employment with the District Council of Millicent in January 1992 as a clerical officer in the customer service area of the Millicent Office.

Over the years Ms Bell has held different positions within the administration area.

The council amalgamation in 1997 led to her assisting the Chief executive officer Frank Brennan during this transition period and then a role as Mr Brennan's assistant for many years until his retirement.

Following a restructure the Manager administration role was created which Ms Bell remained in until her last day on Friday, April 21st.

"The skills and knowledge gained through the various positions have provided me with the confidence to venture out of my comfort zone and take the huge step into the private sector," Ms Bell said.

"I am very excited about the new challenges that lie ahead and the skills that I can take to the new role through my own personal experiences."

During her final day at work around 50 colleagues joined Ms Bell for morning tea held in the Millicent Library.

"I will not only miss the staff who over the years have become lifelong friends and an extended family, but also the whole community who I have been privileged in serving" she said.

"The ability to play a small part in the community that you live in is probably the reason why a career in local government is so rewarding."

Cathy paid special thanks to former Wattle Range Mayor Don Ferguson and his wife Helen, former CEO Frank Brennan and Manager Libraries and Cultural Services Janice Nitschke who have mentored her over the years, providing Ms Bell with guidance, knowledge and ongoing support.

WRC Councillor Moira Neagle said Ms Bell had been a valuable employee and will be missed.

"When Cathy Bell left the building she would've taken an enormous amount of information inside her head, it would have walked out with her," she said.

Government crackdown on vaping welcomed by group

By Charlotte Varcoe

Non-prescription vapes will be banned from importation under a federal government crackdown.

New rules will have vapes sold in pharmacies and in "pharmaceutical-like" packaging.

Certain flavours, colours and other ingredients will be banned and the concentration and volume of nicotine will be reduced.

Single-use disposable vapes will also be banned.

Those using vapes to help quit smoking will receive a prescription for "legitimate" therapeutic use.

Substance Misuse Limestone Coast project officer Sophie Bouchier said the data from the 2021 Planet Youth School survey showed up to 30 per cent of Year 10s had vaped at least once in their lifetime and 24 per cent had vaped more once or more in the last 30 days.

"This shows us vapes are easily accessible to young people and current research also shows more vapes have nicotine in them and this is not disclosed on the brightly coloured packaging," Ms Bouchier said.

"Nicotine is the addictive component of cigarettes, but cigarettes also contain cancer causing ingredients.

"Vaping is safer than smoking cigarettes and any new laws need to take into account that adults need to have access to an alternative to smoking cigarettes."

She said prohibition of drugs did not work with more than 43 per cent of Australians having tried an illicit drug at least once.

"The black market goes into overdrive when substances are banned with no quality control and they are sold online, making it easier for young people to access with no restrictions," Ms Bouchier said.

"The best way to reduce the use of vaping by young people and the decline of the black market is to make vapes widely available and restricted to adults, as an alternative to smoking cigarettes.

"Research also shows evidence-based alcohol and other drug education in schools give young people accurate, non-sensationalised information about drugs, they delay their own onset of using until they are adults."

She said "shock factor" information could have the opposite effect and instead increased young people's interest in alcohol and other drugs.

"This also means parents and other significant adults in a young person's life also need evidence-based information and education," Ms Bouchier said.

"This highlights the need for increased investment by the Federal Government for health promotion activities that discourage young people from vaping through education."

Wattle Range drop-outs higher

By Aidan Curtis

More than 10 per cent of the population living in Wattle Range did not go further than Year 9 at school, according to recently released census figures.

Data taken from the 2021 national census has shown Wattle Range has a higher percentage of people dropping out of high school than the national average.

Australia-wide, 7.2 per cent of people aged 15 years and older responded to the census saying their highest level of education attained was Year 9 or below.

For Wattle Range, 10.7 per cent of people living in the region responded that they had attained a Year 9 or below level of education.

It was a similar story for higher year levels, with 13.4 per cent of people completing up to Year 10 in Wattle Range compared to 10 per cent nationally.

There was a bigger gap for Year 11, with 12.3 per cent of Wattle Range people compared to the national figure of 4.6 per cent.

People living in Wattle Range were also less likely to hold a Bachelor Degree or higher at 9.6 per cent.

Nationally, over a quarter of the population responded to the census saying they held a Bachelor Degree or higher.

The most common education level for the region was Certificate III, with 17.2 per cent of people attaining a qualification.

Band of the SAPOL and guests at the restored heritage listed site.

Reverend Doctor Murray Earl performed prayer and blessings at both ceremonies.

Ceremonies mark history

Millicent became the focus of last Friday's annual South Australian Police (SAPOL) Foundation Day with two formal ceremonies taking place in the town.

Since 1992, SAPOL has acknowledged the establishment of the organisation on Foundation Day and focused on themes reflecting its rich and diverse history.

This year, the establishment of the restored Millicent Police Station horse stables and cells as a police heritage site was acknowledged.

A second ceremony held the same day at the Millicent Old Cemetery unveiled a replica headstone for Mounted Constable George William Manhood.

Around 70 guests attended each ceremony including Dick Watts who is a direct descendant of Const Manhood who was his maternal uncle.

SAPOL Commissioner Grant Stevens APM LEM, the President of the SA Police Historical Society (SAPHS) Bill Prior and Wattle Range Council Deputy Mayor Peter Dunicliff were also in attendance.

Acting chief inspector Naomi Oberscheidt was MC for both events.

The graveside service included an address by John White from SAPHS who had researched the legacy of Const Manhood and described him as a remarkable man who made an outstanding contribution to his community.

Born in Millicent, Const Manhood joined the South Australia Police in 1927 at the age of 21.

In 1938 he was appointed Officer in Charge of the Summertown Police Station and was a popular and dedicated police officer.

Tragically, in 1943 he contracted diphtheria and died suddenly.

Aged 37, Const Manhood was buried in his hometown in the Millicent Old Cemetery.

Highly regarded by the Adelaide Hills community of Summertown they raised funds for a marble headstone on his grave and the erection of a large obelisk memorial opposite the Summertown police station in his honour.

The Summertown memorial is believed to be the only one of its kind erected in South Australia for a serving police officer.

Suffering from weathering over the years the headstone at the Millicent Old Cemetery had deteriorated to such an extent that it could not be restored.

A replica of the headstone, gifted by the Police Association of South Australia and positioned alongside the original, was unveiled last week.

Mr White paid tribute to Const Manhood's wife Esther who came to Millicent with their two daughters, Shirley and Josephine, after his death.

Josephine Blowes was unable to attend the ceremony but has agreed to allow the original headstone tablet, donated by the community of Summertown, to be placed on her mother's nearby grave.

President of the SAPHS Bill Prior and President Police Association Mark Carroll APM unveiled the headstone with Commissioner Grant Stevens laying a wreath.

The crowd reconvened a short time later at the rear yard of the Millicent Police Station to witness the unveiling of the Police Heritage

Commissioner Grant Stevens, President of SAPHS Bill Prior and SAPHS member John White with descendants of Mounted Constable George Manhood. Site plaque at the historic horse stables and cells.

Music by members of the Band of the SAPOL greeted guests as they arrived.

Receiving extensive restoration work last year the site is Millicent's only confirmed State Heritage Place in the town centre.

President of the SAPHS, Bill Prior, gave a history of the site which was first established in Millicent in 1874 by Mounted Const Shiels.

Const Shiels occupied several sites in the township as a temporary police station until the first permanent station was built in 1877.

The following year the stable and hay loft was built at the rear of the station with the stables converted to two police cells in 1948 until decommissioned in 1981.

It is the only remaining structure from the 1877 police station and is a rare example of historic South Australian architecture.

Officer in charge (OC) of Millicent Police Station, Snr Sgt first class Rick Errington acknowledged former OC Peter Brown who initiated the restoration of the historic site by bringing it to the attention of the Commissioner Grant Stevens.

Formalities on the day ended after three members of the Millicent Police Station were presented with service medals.

Const Rachel Bagshaw received the Emergency response active service medal, Snr Const Tanya Payne the 20 year clasp of the SAPOL service medal and Snr Sgt first class Rick Errington received 30 year clasp of the SAPOL service medal.

Receiving service medals on the day are Const Rachel Bagshaw, Snr Sgt first class Rick Errington and Snr Const Tanya Payne.

Weaving stories for exhibit

By Caroline Hammat

Around 40 people gathered at the Millicent Gallery Friday afternoon for the opening of the Millicent Weaves a Tapestry of Art exhibition.

Showcasing the work for members of the Millicent Craft Group the exhibition display takes in a wide range of materials and inspiration.

Manager Libraries and Cultural Services Janice Nitschke and Millicent Craft Group secretary Pat Muhovics welcomed guests to the exhibition and Councillor Moira Neagle declared the exhibition open.

“Consider how many stitches are in this exhibition, how many brush strokes, scissor cuts, hand movements to mould pottery.

“There is joy here.”

The craft group was acknowledged by Cr Neagle for providing mentorship and social connections and a place where members can share and seek advice.

The exhibition includes tapestry, embroidery, quilting, painting, clay, scrapbooking and fibre art.

Relocating her large weaving loom to the gallery, Ms Muhovics will be acting as artist in residence at different times throughout the exhibition.

Millicent weaves a tapestry of art is open until June 8th.

Celebrating Foundation Day

By Caroline Hammat

Millicent was the focus of this year's annual South Australian Police Foundation Day on Friday April 28.

Two ceremonies took place acknowledging the restored Millicent Police horse stables and cells as a Police Heritage site and the unveiling of a replica headstone for Mounted Constable George William Manhood at the Millicent cemetery.

Since 1992, SAPOL has acknowledged Foundation Day and focussed on a theme which reflects its rich and diverse history.

SAPOL Commissioner Grant Stevens joined dignitaries, Members of the SA Police Historical Society, Band of the South Australian Police and invited guests for both ceremonies.

Around 70 people attended both events with afternoon tea held for guests once formalities were finalised.

Grand final reunions galore

By Kathy Fennell

There was lots of reminiscing, and lots of 'remember when', and 'remember that tackle' at the welcoming evening at the Penola Football Club on Friday evening.

The reunion was for those who played in the 1989, 90, 92, 93, 2001, 2003 and 2013 premierships in differing grades including senior, reserves and junior and senior colts.

Netball premierships were won in 1989, 90, 91, 92, 2001, 2003, 2010, 2012 and 2013 in A grade, A Reserve, B grade and C grade.

An informal lunch was held on Saturday.

Showground market grows

By Caroline Hammat

Since the return of the Millicent Showground Markets last September both stallholders and market goer attendance has steadily increased.

Potted plants, tools, jewellery, original art, craft items, second hand items and baked goods are represented regularly with over 20 stalls to browse.

The fortnightly market has recently extended its hours until 1pm and is introducing an extra market day on Saturday May 13th to celebrate the Mother's Day weekend with free tea or coffee available and a chocolate for the mums.

Wattle Range Council have supported the extra date on the market calendar by sponsoring live music by Christy and Jason Wallace.

Saturday May 6th is the next market day and there are both indoor and outdoor sites available.

Interested stall holders are encouraged to phone 0459 333 560 for further enquiries or to book a $10 site.

The Showground Market has become an important part of the ongoing fundraising for the volunteer run not for profit A. H. & P Show Society.

Dot Clayton, Sandra Gurney and Cheryl Davies join forces with their three stalls selling a variety of items.

Regular stall holders Lynne and Bob McKenzie keep the stallholders and market goers fed with their popular BBQ.

With friends Naomi Baugh (Center) and daughters (L/R) Lola, Leah and Kiana; and Aurora Emnace, the group thanked and invited the audience to sing a very moving rendition of I Still Call Australia Home.

"Ito kami...This is us" Team, Filipino residents of Penola Nena Suclan, Ashe Montecillo, Kate Montecillo, Laarni Krause, Janet Borja, Jhen Richards, Nessie Manondo, Lili Auld, Becky and Rolando Mariano.

Moments before going on stage, members of the "Ito Kami...This is Us" marvel on the journey everyone took to get the show on the road.

Filipino culture on show

'Twas a night week before Valentines Day when Penola's Raidis Estate opened its doors to welcome guests for a night of Filipino dances, songs and food.

Billed as "Ito kami...This Is Us" was a multimedia presentation sponsored by the Penola Wellness Group to not only showcase Filipino culture but more importantly to underscore the significance of re-connecting to one's culture to achieve wellbeing and happiness.

The audience were transported in an imaginary trip to the Philippines via a video tour explaining the rich and diverse customs, traditions, and languages of the Filipino people. parade of dances and a medley of songs representing the major island groups of Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao in the Philippines.

The dances included ethnic and folk dances such as the Bagobo Rice Dance (Mindanao), Singkil (Mindanao), Itik Itik (Visayas), Subli, Pandanggo Sa Ilaw (Luzon).

The medley of songs included Silayan (Glance), Rey Valera's Kahit Maputi na ang Buhok Ko (Even If My Hair is Already Grey), Rosas Pandan, Pamulinawen, Ernani Cuenco and Levi Celerios's Gaano Kita Kamahal (How Much I Love You) and Ang Pipit (The Little Lark). The group also included an ethno-modern dance piece based on Joey Ayala's song, Magkaugnay (meaning connected) and a heartwarming rendition of I Still Call Australia Home, performed with fellow locals Naomi Baugh and her children Lea, Kiana and Lola; as well as visiting friend Aurora Emnace.

Locals were also treated to some Filipino favorites including Lechon Kawali (Crispy Pork), Lumpiang Shanghai (Shanghai-style Spring Rolls), Empanada, Chicken Adobo, Pansit Bam-I (Combination Noodles with stir fried vegetables) and Filipino Fried Rice; with Crema de Fruta, Maja Blanca, Cassava Cake and other party fares. Drinks were made available by Raidis Estate.

The multimedia presentation of Filipino culture was a first of its kind under the banner of the Penola Wellness Group.

As there were only few Filipinos residing in Penola, members of performing group managed to stage the event by also working behind the scenes: Laarni Krause and Nena Suclan teamed up on the video and audio design; Lili Auld curating the medley of songs as well as doubling as choir master; Ashe Montecillo as dance coordinator; Becky Mariano on script with Kate Montecillo as voice over talent; Jhen Richards, Nessie Manondo and Janet Borja on catering with Rolly Mariano on ways and means.

The event, held last February 7th, 2023 and was attended by locals and visitors in Penola.

Penola Wellness Group members played hosts serving guests with Filipino party favourites such as spring rolls, empanada, chicken adobo, crispy pork; later sweet dishes such as cassava cake, maja blanca and many others were also served.

Lili Auld (Left) conducts as the group sings a medley of traditional and popular Filipino songs to a delighted crowd.

Janet Borja, Jhen Richards and Nessie Manondo imitate the movements of a duck or itik in a dance called Itik-itik. Created by Visayan folks living in Mindanao so many decades ago, this folkdance remains very popular in schools, especially among young children.

Pandanggo sa Ilaw (Waltzing with lights) is a perfect example of a Filipino folk dance with a Spanish-Portuguese pedigree. Husband and wife team of Becky and Rolly Mariano waltz while playfully passing the in colourful glasses with candle lights hence imitating dancing fireflies often seen during night time.

Lili Auld (centre right) dances to the energetic music of the Subli, a popular folk dance created in the provincial town of Bauan, Batangas which is a few hours south of Manila. In May, the devotees flock the streets of the town in parades of colours, music and dancing in honour of the Holy Cross of Santa Cruz for Her bountiful blessings.

Ashe Montecillo and Nena Suclan perform the Bagobo rice dance known as "Sugod Uno." The Bagobo tribe of the southern Philippine island of Mindanao celebrates rice in all its cycles – from planting to harvesting – all done with thankful hearts.

Mother and daughter Kate Montecillo and Laarni Krause perform part of an ethnic dance called Singkil where a debutante princess accompanied by a royal courtier is introduced to society.

The song, Magkaugnay (magkaugnay means connected), penned by renowned Filipino ethno-modern music guru Joey Ayala, created a dance revolution among Filipinos worldwide; the song embodies the connectedness of all mother earth's creations be it great and small.

KHANH ONG'S WILD FOOD
SBS Food, Sunday, 8.30pm

Never far from a cheeky smile or quip, chef Khanh Ong (pictured) has proved himself a fan favourite on both MasterChef and Survivor. His first headline series, sees him on a high-energy culinary adventure to remote corners of Australia. Ong explores each location, discovering its local produce and crafting his own recipes inspired by what he finds. In tonight's second episode, Ong journeys to the rugged coastal town of Port Lincoln in South Australia to unlock the secrets of the local seafood. He learns how to trawl for wild prawns, harvest oysters, and forage for unique coastal ingredients, before putting his skills to the test at a beach cook-up.

DOCUMENTARY NOW!

ABC TV Plus, Thursday, 9.15pm

At their best, documentaries inspire global change (Planet Earth, An Inconvenient Truth); at their worst, they give us an insight into a homemade zoo and a pseudo-celebrity named Joe Exotic (Tiger King). No question, we're obsessed with them. This satirical series, hosted by Helen Mirren and created by Saturday Night Live alumni Fred Armisen, Bill Hader and Seth Myers, gently mocks the format, using fictitious subjects to parody well-known films. Tonight's premiere, "Sandy Passage", a take on Grey Gardens, casts Armisen and Hader (both pictured) as Big Vivvy and Little Vivvy, ageing socialites living in squalor on their crumbling estate.

CORONATION OF KING CHARLES III

Seven, Saturday, from 4.30pm

Teapots, ritzy headwear and coronation quiches at the ready – the royal-watching event of the year has arrived, happily in prime-time for Australian viewers. There will be pomp and ceremony to spare as King Charles III and Queen Camilla (both pictured) formally celebrate their roles in a service conducted at London's Westminster Abbey. Seven's broadcast of the festivities, led by Michael Usher, will include expert commentary from Angela Rippon, Victoria Arbib and Robert Jobson.

New Mazda 3 coming July

By Alistair Kennedy, Marque Motoring

Mazda Australia has released details of its MY 2023 Mazda3 hatchback and sedan due to arrive here in July.

The Mazda 3 powertrain has been streamlined to comprise of the Skyactiv G 2.0 and 2.5-litre engines, which are both mated to the 6-speed Skyactiv-Drive automatic transmission. G20 models also receive an upgrade to the Skyactiv G 2.0-litre petrol engine, with cylinder deactivation and other improvements to the combustion process resulting in lower CO2 emissions without compromising on performance or driveability.

Fuel consumption improves by 5 per cent to 5.9 L/100km for the hatch and 5.8 L/100km for the sedan.

Stylistically, the enhanced Mazda 3 adds a new colour to the mix, with Ceramic Metallic replacing Sonic Silver in the model's eight-strong colour palette. Inside, G20 Touring grades and above receive new convenience features such as wireless Apple CarPlay and Android Auto™, wireless phone charging and USB-C ports.

G25 GT grades and above additionally benefit from the 10.25-inch Mazda Connect infotainment display, as featured on other Mazda nameplates, such as the CX-5, CX-8 and CX-9.

Customers can also enjoy the 10.25-inch Mazda Connect infotainment display on entry level Mazda3 grades, such as G20 Pure and G20 Evolve, by opting for the Vision Technology package.

The updated Mazda 3 hatch and sedan will go on sale in July 2023.

'Pure sports performance': Type R takes back record

By Chris Riley, Marque Motoring

Honda's new Civic Type R hot hatch has posted a new lap record for the Nurburgring road circuit in Germany.

The latest version of Honda's three-door hottie set a time of seven minutes and 44.881 seconds, reclaiming the title of fastest front-drive production car.

That's a full half second faster than the Renault Megane RS Trophy R, which set the previous record of seven minutes and 45.389 seconds back in April, 2019. The pair have enjoyed a great tussle over the years, repeatedly swapped records at the 'Ring, nicknamed the Green Hell.

Honda says the new lap time record demonstrates that the Civic Type R, which underwent a full model change, further improved its dynamic performance compared to its predecessor model.

It adds the Type R was developed with the goal to achieve the "ultimate pure sports performance" by attaining the ultimate in both speed, which is the essential value of a sports model, and driving pleasure, which appeals to the emotion of the driver.

Honda's Hideki Kakinuma said since the start of sales in Japan in September 2022, the company had received a huge amount of customer feedback from around the world.

"However, we still had one more mission to fulfill, which was to claim the title as the world's fastest FWD car with a record Nurburgring lap time," Mr Kakinuma said.

"Six years after the lap record was set by the previous-generation Civic Type R (FK8), we reached this new dimension as a result of all of the passions we poured in and all the advancements we made for this Type R model.

"Finally, our wish to share this title with all Type R fans all around the world came true."

Mr Kakinuma added the company hoped all current and prospective owners of the Type R would enjoy their vehicle with the pride they shared with consumers.

This time, the record-setting Type R was fitted with track-focused Michelin's Pilot Sport Cup 2 Connect rubber instead of the usual Pilot Sport 4 S tyres, providing higher levels of grip.

Civic also holds the record for quickest front-drive production car at Japan's Suzuka Circuit which it set in in April, 2022.

The 2023 Honda Civic Type R is priced at $72,600 drive-away, but you have to wait two years if you want one – that's how long the waiting list is.

It's powered by a 2.0-litre four-cylinder turbocharged petrol engine with 235kW of power and 420Nm of torque, paired with a six-speed manual transmission.

It dispatches the dash from 0-100km/h in a claimed 5.4 seconds, with a top speed of 275km/h.

Comeback: The updated Honda Civic Type R has reclaimed its Nurburgring lap record time.

Seaside battle won by Roosters

ROBE 45 d PORT MACDONNELL 27

Port MacDonnell hosted its fellow seaiders for the Demons' second home game of the season.

However, it did not go as planned with Robe proving too strong on the day.

The Roosters won the toss and were awarded the first centre pass.

Despite an early turnover from the "Bay's" star defender Alana Berkefeld, the first goal went to the guests.

Robe captain Georgia Perkins set the defensive pressure early creating many turnovers, which resulted in a convincing early lead.

The pressure was on Port MacDonnell goalies Megan Hein and Kori Collins as the Roosters limited opportunities to score.

In a speedy game of netball, Demons Liza Mutch and Shannon Scheidl had good cover through the middle, but Robe's Annie Regnier and Lucy Perkins worked exceptionally well together, with their experience and agility challenging the Demon's mid court.

The Carter sisters Demi and Halle held well in Robe's goal circle and shot with accuracy, which gave the Roosters a promising 16-5 goal lead heading into quarter time.

The second quarter saw Robe's mid court continue to apply pressure, ensuring Georgia Perkins and Emma Grant treasured every turnover.

Down the defensive end Port MacDonnell's Alysha Coon and Berkefeld worked overtime but Robe managed to build on its lead to be up by 13 at the half.

The hosts shuffled its their midcourt at the main break to try and limit the flow, but Regnier, Lucy Perkins and Ellen Ramke were assertive through the middle.

They caused strife for Scheidl, Mutch and Kate Faint.

Although Collins and Hein moved well in the circle, their shooting accuracy was down, which provided Georgia Perkins and Grant rebounding opportunities.

The Carter sisters continued working hard in Robe's goal circle, but it was not easy work with Coon and Berkefeld making them earn every goal.

Robe's court transition was excellent, and they worked well as a team to be up 34-17 at the last change.

Hein came out of goals and into wing defence in the fourth, with the Demons bringing the fresh legs of Under 17 Lara Wilson into goal shooter.

Hein provided pressure down the mid court, but it was not enough for the speedy Roosters attack.

Wilson added some much-needed accuracy for the Bay, but it was not enough to close the gap.

Ultimately, Robe's athleticism and experience proved to be superior and at the final whistle the guests claimed a 45-27 goal win.

Best for the Roosters were Georgia Perkins and Ramke, while Berkefeld and Coon stood out for the home team.

TOUGH DAY: It was a difficult day for Port MacDonnell shooter Kori Collins as Robe's defence limited opportunities for the Demons.

Shooting spree for Tantanoola

TANTANOOLA 78 d NANGWARRY 32

The writing was on the wall early when Tantanoola hosted Nangwarry on Saturday.

The Saints scored on the first centre pass, but after that the home team went on a 13-goal shooting spree to set up its 46 goal win.

Nangwarry regrouped and continued to make the Tigers work hard but with only two shots missed for the quarter and Keryl Ousey shooting at 100 per cent, the going was tough for the Saints' defence.

Ousey combined well with Jami Walker in the goal circle and the first break Tantanoola held a 23-7 goal lead.

Nangwarry's Hayley Burner and Tantanoola's Kate Varcoe provided experience and worked tirelessly through the mid court for their respective teams.

Tiger Tayla Rowe enjoyed her freedom at goal defence in the second half with several rejections, intercepts and strong rebounds.

Halftime saw Nangwarry make some changes with Cassie Dinnison providing some experience in the goal circle and Ella Jones moving to wing attack.

In the last quarter the Saints had their best output on the scoreboard, but it was not enough to quell the Tigers' onslaught.

Rowe and Walker were best for Tantanoola, with Kayla Gray and Chrystal Lock the top performers for Nangwarry.

Experience: Kate Varcoe helped the Tantanoola Tigers to a solid Round 3 win over Nangwarry.

Strong Magpies soar to 26-goal victory

KALANGADOO 58 d MOUNT BURR 32

A strong outing from the Magpies produced a 26-goal win over a visiting Mount Burr in Round 3 of Mid South East netball.

Both teams started well with high pressure across the court.

Early in the first quarter Mount Burr's circle defenders Megan Thiele and Olivia Dean combined effectively to force Kalangadoo goalies Abbey Duncan and Lara Munro to work hard to find space.

Lauren Schultz made her mark on the game for the Mozzies, reading the play well and feeding her goalies accurately, but Kalangadoo still entered the first break with a 10-goal advantage.

Mount Burr made positional changes at the break and brought Lauren Wheeler to wing attack and moved Schultz into goal attack.

Wheeler and Kalangadoo's Jane Auld had a tight tussle and neither would give an inch.

Mozzies goal shooter Ebony Clark had a solid quarter and shot at 100 per cent.

Regardless, the Magpies extended their lead and entered half time with a 30-14 goal buffer.

The Mozzies brought fresh legs on with the addition of Simone Westerman to goal keeper which initially unsettled the Kalangadoo goal circle.

However, the Magpies increased their defensive pressure to counter the move with Auld and Lauren Kain forcing errors and turning the ball back down the court.

Jump: Kalangadoo's Lauren Kain attempts to stop a pass. Pictures: LACHLAN ONIONS

Injury concerns late in the third quarter and early into the fourth caused Mount Burr to utilise most of its bench.

Pressure: Mount Burr's Lauren Wheeler and Kalangadoo's Jane Auld fight for possession.

This allowed the more settled Magpies to keep finding space through the mid court and feed goalies with precision.

Thiele continued to work hard on Duncan who combined well with Munro to convert accurately.

With Kalangadoo's defensive pressure and experience it was able to extend the lead out to 26 by the final whistle.

Munro and Chloe Peacock were named the Magpies' best, while Thiele and Caitlyn Payne received the honours for the Mozzies.

Eagles claim redemption

HATHERLEIGH 18.17 (125) d KONGORONG 10.6 (66)

Hatherleigh bounced back from its shock Round 2 loss in style with an emphatic win over Kongorong on Saturday.

The Eagles stamped their authority from the opening bounce and kicked five goals in the first quarter to take a 23-point lead at the break.

The Hawks reduced the deficit in the second stanza as they held the hosts to just one goal while adding two of their own to head into the main break with the score 44-26.

However, Hatherleigh stepped up another gear in the third quarter and took control of the contest.

The Eagles spread their wings as they kicked eight goals to head into three-quarter-time with a 48-point lead.

The hosts then cruised to victory as they added another four majors in the last quarter to claim a 59-point win.

Jed Telfer and Patrick Chay were the two standout performers for Hatherleigh and were named as the two best for their side, while Gerard McGrath and Sam Telfer dominated in the forward line.

McGrath kicked six goals and Telfer bagged five of his own in a dominant display.

For the Hawks, Jarrod Ryan put up a solid fight as he kicked five goals, while Matthew Roberts led the way and was best on ground for the visitors.

Tigers prevent history repeating itself

By James Murphy

TANTANOOLA 16.17 (113) d NANGWARRY 7.4 (46)

Last time Nangwarry and Tantanoola met the former broke an eight-year winning drought.

On Saturday another drought was broken - albeit of a lesser magnitude - with the Tigers reaping revenge to shake a 13-game losing streak.

Played on its home surface, Tantanoola did not take any chances when opening the match with a 27-0 effort.

To the Saints' credit they narrowed the gap in the second with four goals to one, but remained 12 points down at half time.

The Tigers, determined to prevent history repeating itself, put in an 11-goal second half to finish up 67-point victors.

There was no passenger on the day and a wide-spread contribution saw nobody score more than two goals for the hosts.

With a total of 16 majors for the day it comes as an impressive feat, with six players scoring two each.

Liam English, Jordan and Troy Hatt, Darcy Hogan, Cam Saint and Matthew Sorella all had a taste of the action with multiples, while Hayden Brown, Jack Dawe, Cade Kelly and Alec Roberts also found the middle of the big sticks.

However, it was the efforts of Ellis Cushion which were judged as best on the day.

He took home the best-on-ground honours, ahead of Kelly, Jordan Hatt and Braydn Reilly.

Troy Hatt and Saint were also solid, in a game which produced plenty of positives for the Tigers.

At the other end of things Nangwarry relied heavily on Andrew Hyland up forward and the Saints' captain slotted four goals for the match.

Adam Todd put in a best-on-ground performance, while Jack Pudney, Dylan Podobnik and Joshua Smith were also among the best.

The Tigers will enjoy the bye this round, while Nangwarry faces the daunting prospect of welcoming reigning premier Kalangadoo to its home deck.

Fourth quarter proves the difference for Hatherleigh

HATHERLEIGH 51 d KONGORONG 42

Hatherleigh proved too strong for Kongorong in Round 3 of Mid South East netball.

The Eagles came away with a nine-goal victory, but it was not easily come by.

Both teams started strongly with Hatherleigh's Rosie Nettle putting great pressure over the ball while Kongorong's Tilah Buckingham positioned well and held in perfect position for feeders.

It was a tough battle in the mid court with both centres evenly matched creating turnovers for both end.

Kongorong took the lead early mid quarter but with Tegan Telfer and Erin Watson fast feeding into the Hatherleigh goal circle and Demi Vanderhorst finishing off with accuracy the score levelled out to 11-all at quarter time.

Elly Redden started the quarter with strong rebounding for the Eagles and Vanderhorst working tirelessly in the circle against Kongorong goal defender Riley Buckingham.

In turn Nettle continued to apply pressure over the ball which lead to turnovers while Watson chased up loose balls.

At half time the game remained up for grabs with Hatherleigh up by a goal, 24-23.

The Eagles made changes to the attack line at break.

They seemed to pay off as Vanderhorst shot accurately and Telfer moved to goal attack to feed strongly.

Hawks' shooter Tilah Buckingham held well but the battle between Redden and Hawks' goal attack Evie Sealy made it hard to convert goals for the Hawks.

The Eagles' defensive pressure turned the game and at the final break they led by three goals.

The last quarter had both teams start strongly with Kongorong's Emily Lightbody in goal keeper applying pressure in the circle.

The Hawks capitalised and brought the score back to even in the first three minutes.

However, Hatherleigh surged and applied heavy pressure down the court to slowly edge in front.

Telfer had settled into goals, feeding Van-derhorst well and things started to flow at the end of the quarter which pushed the Eagles out to a 51-42 win.

Lara MacGregor and Redden were best on court for the victors, while Riley Buckingham and Sealy best served the Hawks.

Roosters win seaside fight after second-half switch

By James Murphy

ROBE 12.12 (84) d
PORT MACDONNELL 10.8 (68)

The battle of the seashores did not fail to impress when Port MacDonnell hosted Robe for Round 3 of Mid South Eastern football.

Both teams have recruited well and are under new coaches and their eventual meeting has been highly anticipated.

Robe entered the round fresh off a win over reigning premier Kalangadoo, while the "Bay" had also started well with two solid wins to kickstart this campaign.

Stakes were high with an early top spot available for the victor and the Roosters grabbed the chance with both hands.

It did not come easily and despite leading by eight at the first change, Port MacDonnell turned things around in the second quarter.

The Demons piled on five goals to Robe's two and at the half time break the hosts held an 11-point advantage.

During that time Colby Munro tore up the midfield and was causing problems for Robe on his way to a best-on-ground performance for the "Bay".

"They are a quality side and I thought our first half we probably cost ourselves a little bit," Robe coach Nathan Brown said.

"We weren't very clean with our ball use, which was a credit to Port Mac and their pressure.

"We just turned the ball over a few too many times."

However, the Roosters turned things back around in the third term.

They held the hosts to a single behind in that period, while converting four of their own seven opportunities at goal.

"In the second half we tidied a few things up and I think our fitness came into play as well, particularly in the last quarter," Brown said.

Brown and Hamish Smith led the charge and the pair finished the day with six and three majors respectively.

Heading into the last with a 16-point buffer the Roosters did well to keep the Demons at arm's length and with three goals each the scoreline remained at 16.

Brown was handed the best-on-ground honours by Robe selectors - for the second time from three games - with his skills and smarts showing the Roosters are in capable hands.

However, he refused to take the credit for his six-goal haul.

"I was just a beneficiary of everyone's hard work," he said.

Kaden Woodward was another impressive performer for the victors and was joined by Henry Lawrie, Jordan Pettit and Bailey Walker in the top order.

"Henry (Lawrie) does a lot of our work on the inside in the midfield and Kaden (Woodward) is young, has had a massive preseason and he is just a bull at a gate," Brown said.

"Kaden also had a bit of a role to play in the second half on (Munro) who was getting on top of us in the clearances.

"He went and did the job and still managed to find the footy himself."

For Port MacDonnell Munro stood out all day and still found his share of possession when hindered by Woodward.

His pace out of the middle is a trademark for the young Demon and he also popped up with a goal.

Will MacDonald was the leading scorer for the home team and the tall man finished his day with four, while coach Josh Woodall bagged two.

Mark Smith backed up his efforts from the previous round and featured highly, while Wade Chant's defensive efforts were top notch.

MacDonald, Zack Williams and Tim Sullivan also made the cut with solid outings.

Robe will now carry confidence into next week's meeting with Hatherleigh, while the Demons will look to prove themselves against Mount Burr.

Mozzies claim close one

Contest: Kalangadoo's Tom Williams and Mount Burr's Andrew Ridley battle for the ball.

By Lachlan Onions

MOUNT BURR 9.14 (68) d
KALANGADOO 9.13 (67)

There was just the solitary behind which separated Mount Burr and Kalangadoo on Saturday as the Mozzies claimed a thrilling win in Round 3 of Mid South Eastern football.

The contest went down to the wire as the Mozzies defended desperately in the closing stages to hold on for a win by the barest of margins.

Mount Burr coach Reece Duncan was pleased with his side's performance in what proved to be a tough, nail-biting contest.

"It is always good to go to Kalangadoo and play well," he said.

"To come away with the win is an added bonus.

"We knew it was going to be a tight match, so we just wanted to play the way we wanted and do our job defensively first and foremost."

In a back-and-forth contest between the reigning premiers and last year's elimination finalists, the Magpies took an early six-point lead thanks to three goals in the first term.

However, the Mozzies fought back and restricted the hosts to just eight points in the second quarter and took a 37-25 lead at half time.

The Magpies then hit back in the third term and had victory in their sights as they kicked four majors to take a 12-point lead with one quarter to play.

"It was a bit of an arm wrestle all day," Duncan said.

"They certainly came out after half time and put the pressure on in the third quarter."

Despite the momentum favouring the home side, the Mozzies refused to die and kicked 3.4 (22) to the Magpies' 1.3 (9) and were able to take a one-point lead with five minutes to play.

Too good: Mount Burr's Kallan Bevan evades James Pratt.

Pictures: LACHLAN ONIONS

"For the last five minutes it was just a matter of desperate football and we held on," Duncan said.

"They had plenty of forward line entries in the last couple of minutes which we were able to repel."

Calum Sparkes was the standout performer for the Mozzies in the ruck, while Connor Gentile was named best on ground for Kalangadoo.

Kallan Bevan was in fine form in the forward line and kicked three goals for Mount Burr, while Dylan Bromley slotted four majors for the Magpies.

Duncan was full of praise for Sparkes, Kallan Bevan and Sam Wallis, who all played key roles for the Mozzies.

"Calum Sparkes rucked most of the day against Justin Bromely," Duncan said.

"He (Sparkes) is a young, smaller guy but he definitely stood strong and did what he had to do so that was very pleasing.

"Young Kallan Bevan's last quarter was absolutely huge for us - he is a very special kid.

"Sam Wallis was in defence and he was as good as he could have been."

Kent continues fine form

There were 92 competitors who nominated for the second South Australian Field and Game state team qualification shoot of the 2023 season.

Ken Atkin and his hard working crew set some challenging targets to test shooters' skills at Burrungule Park in perfect Autumnal weather conditions.

Jeremy Kent shot 71/75 to claim the Gambier Shooting Supplies High Gun and continued his rich vein of form.

Jamie Dunn claimed honours in AA Grade after a shoot-off with Danny Bellinger after both shot 70/75.

Tony Sellars also shot 70/75 to win the Seniors category.

Christopher Von Stanke claimed victory in A Grade with a score of 62/75, while Peter Klieve was the B Grade winner after shooting 54/75.

Kyle Dodman claimed an 11-target win over Edwin Edge in C Grade, while Kain Ashby was the sub-junior winner.

Ernie Scheidl claimed the Veteran's category win, while Tasha Bellinger was the women's winner and Jimmy Papaionnou claimed the junior win.

Results:

They only lost three of the 20 ends to finish with an impressive 37+28.

Runners-up for the day was the team of Rod Gibbs and Denis Clifford, who won the $5 bar vouchers with a score of 33+12.

Other winning teams were Joy Warren and Brian Roper 32+17, Arthur O'Connell and John Scudds 31+5, Terry Barnes and Ian Ross 31+1, Alan Correll and Brian Goode 30+8, the triple of Frank Cooper, Andre Reinders and Aaron Emonson 30+6, Mary Campbell and Peter Varcoe 30+2, plus John Silis and Malcolm Wright 30+1.

Second: Millicent 2-4-2 runners-up Denis Clifford and Rod Gibbs.

Chambers locked and loaded at Bordertown

The Bordertown Gun Club held a shoot last month, with near-perfect conditions for the two events on offer for the day.

The first was a 50-target double barrel championship, which had Gavin Height take the overall honours with a 50/50 - the only possible shot for the event.

There were a total of six 49/50's shot, with Darren Blok, Steve Chambers, Don Pratt, Daniel Robinson, plus Ash and John Hawker all close to a perfect score.

After a shootout Pratt settled into the runner-up position for overall and AA Grade with a 56/57, while Chambers (69/70) secured A Grade from Blok (68/70).

B Grade was won by Robinson with his 49/50 enough to account for Tim Downing on 44/50.

Branden Love won C Grade with 43/50, while Malcolm McGrice finished a close second with 42/50.

The second event for the day as a 50-target pointscore.

The top grade was won by Ash Hawker with 147/150, from John Hawker on 146.

Chambers backed himself to win A Grade again with a 148/150, followed by Blok's 139/150.

Robinson shot 140/150 to go two-from-two in B Grade, with Peter Winsor second on 128/150, while Love also topped C Grade with 129/150 from McGrice on 126/150.

At the end of the day Chambers was awarded the high gun with the highest aggregate score, finishing the event with an impressive total of 197/200.

The club's next shoot will be held on May 28 with a 50-target doubles barrel championships and 25-pair double rise.

Practice from 10.15am with competition to start at 11am.

Competition heating up

By James Murphy

ROBE v HATHERLEIGH

Robe heads into Round 4 of Mid South Eastern football as one of only two undefeated A Grade teams.

The Roosters have collected a couple of impressive scalps on their way to an early top ladder position.

That includes reigning premier Kalangadoo and most recently a revamped Port MacDonnell side on their home deck.

Now Robe hosts 2022 runners-up Hatherleigh in another anticipated clash.

The Eagles come off a big win over Kongorong, after bouncing back from a demoralising performance against Glencoe the previous round.

They will be determined to put another mark in the win column and start building towards the more familiar territory of the top four.

Both teams come off standout performances in the forward line, with Hatherleigh coach Gerard McGrath and Samuel Telfer booting six and five goals respectively.

Meanwhile, Robe's own coach also bagged a six-goal haul, adding some intriguing symmetry to the upcoming clash.

The likes of Jed Telfer, Patrick Chay and Dylan Vanderhorst also carry form for the Eagles.

If the opening rounds are anything to go by, a whole-team performance will be needed against the Roosters.

Brown's football smarts and goalkicking proficiency makes him difficult to contain, while powerhouse forward Hamish Smith gives Robe another reliable option in attack.

Kaden Woodward comes off a strong outing for the seiders and he stepped up with a shutdown role in the second half last week.

Henry Lawrie has proven a valuable recruit and he will be dangerous as ever at ground level around the stoppages, while down back Zac Deane leads the defence by example.

There will be plenty on the line for Hatherleigh as it attempts to turn its slow start around, but Robe will not give an inch on its way to a fourth consecutive win.

MOUNT BURR v PORT MACDONNELL

The Mozzies would still be buzzing from their one-point win over reigning premier Kalangadoo on Saturday.

Now they face another hefty challenge when hosting Port MacDonnell for Round 4 of Mid South East football.

Ruckman Calum Sparkes has been in impressive form in the opening rounds, while youngster Kallan Bevan was also solid on the weekend with three goals and a feature among the best players.

Defender Sam Wallis will be looked to again when facing a strong Demons attack, which has proven to be unpredictable across the opening rounds.

On Saturday it was tall man William MacDonald who did the bulk of the scoring with four majors, but the likes of Tim Sullivan and Ned Wilke have also dealt their share of damage to opposition defences.

The speed and ball skills of Colby Munro

Big man: Will MacDonald will be key for Port MacDonnell when the Demons visit Mount Burr for Round 4. Picture: JAMES MURPHY came to the fore against Robe last round and he ripped open the midfield with his pace.

The Mozzies will need to find a way to lessen his influence, while also taking into account the likes of Mark Smith and Tom Sullivan who have also been highlights over the opening three rounds.

In what looms as the match of the round the result could easily go either way.

NANGWARRY v KALANGADOO

Last time the Saints took to their home ground at Nangwarry Oval it was with former AFL great Dane Swan in their ranks.

That was not enough to claim victory on the day and this week the club faces reigning premier Kalangadoo with only the regular faces at its disposal.

To make matters worse, the Magpies enter the round fresh off a one-point loss to Mount Burr and will be hungry for a big turnaround this Saturday.

They are likely to deliver just that, with a wealth of talent at their disposal even after off-season player movements.

Dylan Bromley has slotted into the forward line well and comes off a four-goal haul against the Mozzies, while it was Connor Gentile who was best-on-ground for Kalangadoo in the nail-biter.

Throw in the likes of McManus brothers Sam and Tye, Lachy Jones and Mitchel Lowe - who have all featured highly among the Magpies best - and there are no shortage of reliable hands across the field.

Nangwarry recruited well over the off-season and there seems to be some talent among those pickups.

Adam Todd comes off a best-on-ground performance for the Saints, while Tyler Virgo also featured in the best against Tantanoola on Saturday.

Captain Andrew Hyland led the goal scoring with four of his team's seven on the day and he will be looked to again if the hosts can find a way to deliver the ball out of the midfield.

You would have to flick back through the history books to August 17, 2013 to find the last time Nangwarry defeated Kalangadoo.

While the Magpies have struggled in the opening rounds with just the one win, they will notch up a second this week and should do so in convincing style.

KONGORONG v GLENCOE

An interesting battle will unfold at Kongorong when the Hawks host the Murphies for Round 4.

Kongorong may sit in eighth with three losses but it is clearly an improved outfit when compared to last season.

That was evident in the scare it dealt to Kalangadoo in Round 1, with the Magpies scrambling over the line in the final quarter.

Matt Cordy recently won the John Rogers medal at the Anzac Day clash against Port MacDonnell and could be out to impress again.

Captain Jett Attard kicked four goals in that game, while Matthew Roberts comes off a best-on-ground performance against Hatherleigh.

Jarrod Ryan booted five majors, while Brandon Kranz, Ryan Vickery and Bryn Weaver were all solid.

However, it was not enough to deny Hatherleigh a convincing win.

Glencoe will take confidence from that, having trumped the Eagles the week prior by 97 points.

A huge nine-goal haul from Tory Weaver led the Murphies to victory, while Patrick Mitchell, Henry Smith and Jack Edmonds were also impressive.

Zacc Cocks and Dylan Childs can always be relied on to give their all and with Glencoe fresh off the bye it will enter the Hawks' nest confident for the win.

Reliable: Megan Hein will be one to watch in the Port MacDonnell goal circle.

Murphies seek a treble

KONGORONG v GLENCOE

Kongorong faces a challenge this week when it hosts Glencoe for Round 4 of Mid South East netball.

The Murphies have won both of their outings this year and so far look well-placed to have a crack at defending their 2022 title.

Glencoe goalies Jenna Paproth and Chantelle Cocks are able to read the ball with ease and are fed well from outside the circle by Donna Jaeschke.

Down the other end of the court Sarah Edwards and Chelsea Owen will create pressure and force turnovers from Kongorong's goal circle.

For the Hawks Riley Buckingham and Emily Lightbody fight tirelessly for their team and will snatch up any missed shots or wayward passes from Glencoe's attack line.

Rachel Perry is able to control the ball around the circle edge and will feed into Hawks goalies Tilah Buckingham and Evie Sealey with accuracy.

However, it is difficult to mount a case for Kongorong against the powerhouse Murphies and the home team should take the points.

ROBE v HATHERLEIGH

Hatherleigh travels to Robe this weekend for Round 4.

Hatherleigh's Erin Watson and Robe's Annie Regnier will fight hard for the ball through the court, with their ability to chase up loose balls and create turnovers pivotal.

The Roosters have a strong attacking line up and can utilise Tori Gluyas, Halle Carter or Demi Carter within the circle.

Eagles Lara MacGregor and Elly Redden will need to work overtime to get hands over balls and pull in any potential rebounds.

Rosie Nettle will work hard outside the circle for Hatherleigh and will need to put pressure on passes to force errors from Robe's attack line.

Robe defenders Emma Grant and Georgia Perkins move well in the circle and will make it difficult for Eagles goalies.

This game will be a tough one, with both teams well in the fight.

MOUNT BURR v PORT MACDONNELL

Mount Burr host the Demons this weekend in what could be a close match-up.

Both teams sport strong rosters this season, with accurate goalies down both ends of the court.

Megan Hein and Kori Collins move well in the circle for Port MacDonnell, but there will be plenty of pressure from Mozzies Olivia Dean and Megan Thiele, who use their height to advantage.

Demons Alysha Coon and Alana Berkefeld are able to create turnovers with ease and will provide a challenge for Mount Burr goalies.

However, Caitlyn Payne and Laura Schultz combine well through the Mozzies' mid court and will keep the pressure on with their ease of delivery into attack.

The game could go either way, with the winner to edge a step closer to a top-four position.

NANGWARRY v KALANGADOO

An undefeated Kalangadoo heads to Nangwarry this weekend to play off against the Saints.

A one-sided contest is expected, with the Magpies boasting talent in all areas of the court.

Goalies Ebony McDiarmid and Abbey Duncan are able to move well together and find the space in the circle with ease.

They will be fed well by the likes of Jayde and Chloe Peacock, with the latter coming off a strong performance.

As such Nangwarry defenders Kayla Gray and Chrystal Lock will find themselves under pressure throughout the game.

At the other end Demi Hoffmeister and Kate Bizko combine well in the Saints' goal circle, with the former shooting accurately so far this season.

Lauren Kain and Jane Auld both work overtime and will create turnovers in Kalangadoo's defence.

Countbacks needed at Millicent after tight contests

There were 17 women who took part in a par competition for the second round of the Anne Whitty Memorial trophy at the Millicent Golf Club last week.

Countbacks were needed in both A and B Grade after even contests in both grades.

Kirsty Bailey scored +2 and claimed the win in A Grade on a count-back from Mary Winser.

It was a similar story in B Grade as Carmel Cory took out the win with a score of +2 after a count-back with Julie McKenzie.

Val Williams was the winner of the nine-hole competition after her score of +4 on the front nine.

Mary Warneke, Lyn Watson and Sue Agnew were the ball winners.

Agnew was nearest to the pin on the third hole, where she also picked up a birdie.

Heather Anderson was the nearest to the pin on the 13th hole.

Practice makes perfect

13C

Kirsty's 13C girls put into practice what they had been working on at training with some beautiful passages of play down the court which were finished off by accurate shooting from the goalies.

Skye Wooding was the best player for Penola. Kim's 13C team worked well together with some great passages of play.

There were plenty of promising signs to show in years to come they will be some great netballers.

Dya was the best on court for the Eagles.

NARACOOORTE 19 d PENOLA 11

There were several good passages of play for Penola and some great turnovers.

Ultimately, concentration let the Eagles down at times but the girls refused to give up and improved as the contest went on.

Naracoorte was a great opponent but Penola worked hard all day. Emmie Copping and Zoe Zadow were the best players for Penola.

a solid four-quarter performance against the Demons.

It was a back and forth contest which saw teams trade goal for goal and the Eagles needed to capitalise on every opportunity.

A few position changes resulted in the girls settling and playing their own game.

However, Naracoorte managed to pick off a few passes and came away with three-goal win.

Winnie Zadow and Emma Gosse were the best players for Penola.

DIVISION 3

NARACOOORTE 31 d PENOLA 5

It was a baptism of fire for Penola's first game of the 2023 season as Naracoorte showed its class.

The girls were excited for their first game of the year and had some good passages of play with girls being positive and supporting each other.

The Eagles created several turnovers in defence as Lucy Lambert and Chloe Neale combined well, while Haylee Moulton scored all five goals for Penola.

DIVISION 2

NARACOOORTE 38 d PENOLA 20

A first-half blitz proved to be the difference between Penola and Naracoorte in Division 2 netball on Saturday.

The Demons surged in the first two quarters with 24 goals and restricted the hosts to just seven at half time.

The second half was a more even contest and Penola won the final quarter.

The Eagles played well against a strong Demons side with some good passages of play.

Grace McCarthy led the way in attack with nine goals, while Mia Gartner scored eight and Rochelle Crawford three.

Gartner and Nellie Lear were named the best players for the Eagles.

DIVISION 1

PENOLA 40 d/w NARACOOORTE 40

There was nothing to separate Penola and Naracoorte in Division 1 after a thrilling encounter.

The Eagles started off well in their second game of the season with some strong movement through the mid-court led by Tess Porter.

Penola was in good stead early with a six-goal lead at the first break.

However, Naracoorte fought back and closed the gap to just one goal in the second quarter thanks to some steady shooting from the Demons' Evie Modra-Ryan and Jessica Cox.

Some great defence by Penola's whole team in the third and some equally impressive shooting by Tegan Lythgo and Heidi Berkin meant Penola was in the box seat with a five-goal lead with one term left.

However, just like in the second quarter, Naracoorte surged back into the contest and capitalised off Penola's turnovers to take the lead in the dying stages.

Despite the pressure mounting, Penola was not finished yet and scored a goal in the final minute to tie the game.

Naracoorte had one last attempt to win the game but Penola's defence stood strong to hold on for the draw.

Lythgo and Porter were Penola's best players.

C GRADE

PENOLA 63 d NARACOOORTE 21

The Eagles claimed a comfortable win in C Grade on Saturday.

Penola was hungry for a solid win and stamped its authority early with a 14-3 first quarter.

Despite the pressure an anticipation of it being a grand final rematch, the Eagles were unfazed and took an extensive 21-goal lead at the main interval.

Penola continued to push and score on turnovers and punished the Demons at every opportunity.

Alice Auld put in a solid performance with 38 goals, while Eva Manarangi scored 25 of her own.

Auld and Lucy Catlin were best on court for Penola.

B GRADE

PENOLA 88 d NARACOOORTE 25

The Eagles claimed revenge in the B Grade grand final rematch as they defeated the Demons by 63 goals.

From the outset, Penola was a class above as it came out firing and scored 19 goals in the opening term.

The onslaught continued over the next three quarters as Penola scored more than 20 goals in each term.

Teegan Galpin and Sarah Eustace shot with high percentages from anywhere in the ring.

Eustace scored 41 goals, while Galpin scored an impressive 47 goals.

Ava Copping and Jess Blackmore ran tirelessly all game to feed the goalies well, while Monique Maney, Caitlin Eason, Lauren Moore and Jade Lythgo applied tight pressure in the defensive end all game which resulted in several turnovers.

Galpin and Lythgo were the best players for Penola.

A RESERVES

PENOLA 63 d NARACOOORTE 50

Penola's A Reserves proved too good for Naracoorte with a solid four-quarter performance.

The Eagles hit the ground running and took a 21-10 lead at the first break. Some full-court pressure and excellent shooting saw Penola jump to a comfortable 16-goal lead at the main break.

The game continued to be a physical battle in the goal circles and Naracoorte fought back in the second half to reduce the margin to 13 goals at the final whistle. Kim Wilson and Sally Skeer were the best players for Penola.

Tough day at office for Penola juniors

JUNIOR COLTS

Naracoorte was far too strong for the young Eagles side in Round 2 of Kowree Naracoorte Tatiara football.

Naracoorte dominated the early part of the game and took a 38-point lead into the first quarter break.

Penola's backline was under constant pressure with Luc Baverstock and Joe Barnes fighting hard whilst under relentless attack.

The Demons continued their dominance in the second quarter and scored another 27 points.

However, the Eagles started to find their feet in the second half with some of the younger players in Cormac O'Brien, Charlie Pearce, Finn Malone and Will Harris finding more of the ball as they helped set up some respectful link-up passages of play.

Penola kicked three goals in the second half with Luc Baverstock, Hamish Wilson and George Berkin all contributing.

It was a difficult day for the Eagles as they were outclassed by an older and more experienced Demons line-up who ran out 64-point victors.

Best players for Penola were Luc Baverstock, George Berkin, Charlie Pearce, Cormac O'Brien and Will Harris, while Joe Barnes won the coach's award.

SENIOR COLTS

NARACOOORTE 10.17 (77) d PENOLA 3.2 (20)

Penola ran out onto McCorquindale Park for the first time on Saturday when it hosted Naracoorte.

From the opening bounce the Demons were running in numbers and opened their account with the first four goals of the quarter and restricted the home side to just one point.

Penola coach Camo Merrett instructed the young Eagles to tighten up on their opposition and play team football.

After struggling early on in the contest, Penola fought back after half tie and stemmed the bleeding with improved pressure and held Naracoorte to four goals for the rest of the game.

Lochy Neal, Ben Copping, Thomas Currie, Marcus Brand, Johnny Gosse, Ned Skeer and Bohdi Lear were the Eagles' best players.

Both junior sides will have a bye in Round 3 as the Padthaway/Lucindale juniors are following Lucindale for the first half of the season.

Solid fight from Penola

Penola's A Grade football side bounced back from its disappointing Round 1 performance against Kingston with a strong display against Naracoorte on Saturday.

Penola coach Brad Maney was pleased with his side's performance in their first home game of the season.

"It was a massive bounce back in a lot of ways," he said.

"It was just really pleasing from our point of view that all of the things we worked hard on in the preseason came to fruition.

"Ultimately you want that success but I felt that everyone understands where we are going and how much we have actually improved.

"The sky is going to be a lot bluer ahead."

In an even contest, both sides traded goal for goal to begin the encounter before the Demons kicked two late majors to take a 29-15 lead at the first break.

Naracoorte looked like it would run away with the game when it scored another goal early in the second term but Penola soon hit back and kicked five majors in the term to trail by just eight points at the main break.

In an arm-wrestle of a contest, the Demons began to run away with the game in the third quarter and early in the fourth stanza but the Eagles refused to die and fought back to have a glimmer of hope.

"In the last quarter when the game was pretty much done with 15 to 20 minutes left, we just kept fighting," Maney said.

"We got it back to nine points with two or three minutes to go.

"It was at that point that you just never know, if we could have jagged one more you just do not know what might have happened but unfortunately Naracoorte was just a bit too classy in the end."

A late goal from the visitors sealed the deal as Naracoorte claimed a 15-point win.

"I was really proud of the boys' effort," Maney said.

"It just showed that our fitness is up to scratch this year and that is a big thing we have focussed on."

He said the main difference between the two teams was the level of understanding each player had with one another.

"There was one side who have played together for two years and another who have played together for about four hours," Maney said.

"The game understanding that Naracoorte had was superior to ours.

"They were able to halt our momentum, whereas we were not able to slow them down when we needed to.

"Apart from that it was a real even KNTFL contest - it was a high-level game of country footy."

Brad Bryant was best on ground for the Eagles after a superb performance by the co-captain.

"Brad Bryant probably played his best game for Penola since he joined in 2019," Maney said.

"He was exceptional."

Maney praised several players in the team who all stood up.

"Matt Ferguson kicked two goals four off the wing but was just involved in everything," he said.

"Garrett Ha and Brodie Foster had their moments up forward - they both kicked two goals.

"Damien Wenham continues to do lockdown roles for us and is just the ultimate teammate.

"Brad Merrett was back to his 2022 form and he just dominated across halfback as did Jayden Eldridge."

Maney was pleased with the impact Eldridge has had since joining the club in the off-season.

"Since Jayden Eldridge joined, he has been the ultimate leader and ultimate professional in the way he goes about his footy," Maney said.

"For him to have such an impact in just his second game of KNT footy, it is certainly very exciting for the upcoming games."

The Eagles will take on Padthaway this weekend, a team they defeated in the final round of 2022.

"It is going to be interesting, it is very hard to get a gauge on the league at the moment but we are expecting Padthaway to be really strong," Maney said.

"They have got a good halfback line, Tom Edwards has been a dominant player in the league for over a decade now and they also have some classy on-ballers."

Penola needs no extra motivation for this clash as it looks to end a decade-long drought at Padthaway Oval.

"We actually have not won at Padthaway in 10 years, for some reason it is our bogey oval," Maney said.

"So we are really keen to get over that hump and move on from it.

"We know we can beat them, there is belief in that but on Saturday we only had 11 players who were in that game (last year).

"So it is a completely different team, a completely different squad but we know we can beat them, there is no worries about that."

Eagles now two from two

PENOLA 49 d NARACOORTE 41

Penola's A Grade netball team made it two wins from two to start the Kowree Naracoorte Tatiara season with a solid performance against Naracoorte on Saturday.

It was a close contest all day as the Eagles and Demons dealt blow for blow.

The battle between Georgia Gill from Naracoorte and Penola's Siobhan Adams was one to watch as both fed nicely to their goalies whilst also getting defensive stops.

Penola took a narrow one-goal lead at the first break before Naracoorte fought back in the second term.

Scores were level at the main break before the Eagles lifted in the third term and took a handy three-goal lead at three-quarter-time thanks to some strong work from Tegan Lythgo and April Possingham.

Lythgo found some space in the goal circle nicely and finished well to earn herself best on court in only her second game of A Grade netball.

Playing on previous Team of the Year Player Sophie Henschke, Lythgo stepped up to the challenge and did a great job as she received some tough balls and held her ground well.

Kaitlin Egan and Belinda Manser provided another fierce battle in the mid-court.

However, Egan showed her class as her relentless patience, speed and precision earned her a spot in Penola's best.

With one quarter to play, the Eagles stood tall and extended the margin and used their home-court advantage to their favour as the crowd roared the hosts on.

Brooke Klemm and Chelsea Galpin stood tall as they turned defence into attack with several turnovers.

Their relentless pressure all day was a major asset for Penola and multiple rebounds in the last quarter allowed Penola to finally put the foot down as the home side stormed home to claim an eight-goal win.

Possingham was a persistent threat in the circle as she scored 33 goals, while Lythgo scored 16 goals from 21 attempts.

The Eagles have a week-off this weekend and will return to action in Round 4 when they face Border Districts.
